THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

NO CHANGE IN ITS POSITION.

The Enemy Still Holding the North Bank of the Rappahannock.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 6.

Guerrillas and bushwhackers swarm within the lines of the Army of the Potomac so thickly as to render it unsafe for men by twos or threes to go out of camp. Lieut. HEDGES, Second New-York cavalry, and Acting Commissary-General of KILPATRICK'S division, while riding, accompanied by a single Orderly, from Catlett's Station to a point three miles distant, was shot at and seriously, if not mortally, wounded, almost within sight of PLEASONTON'S headquarters, and within a mile of the headquarters of MEADE.

Excepting a small skirmish near Partwood Church with some of KILPATRICK'S cavalry, nothing has occurred to disturb the quiet of our front.

The enemy still have a strong picket on the north bank of the Rappahannock, and seem disposed to resist any attempt to cross that River.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

All Quiet—Rebel Bluster—Guerrillas—Narrow Escape.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Thursday, Nov. 6, 1863.

All continues quiet with the army, and no important movements have been made within the last few days.

THE LAST RESORT.

A rebel Lieutenant—a prisoner—in a boastful spirit yesterday admitted the Confederate Government was a failure, the secession cause hopeless, but, at the same time said he had the consolation of knowing that the people of the South could throw themselves into the arms of France, and thus avoid subjugation. "And this," he said, with emphasis, "is what we are going to do." This officer is a graduate of a military school, and has occupied positions in the military families of some of the best of the rebel commanders. I attach no special importance to this statement, further than as indicating what is talked over in high places. That such a movement is seriously contemplated is now generally believed by rebel prisoners and citizens of the secesh persuasion residing hereabouts.

The straggling parties of rebs are as audacious as ever. Yesterday morning six of our troopers were fired upon near Catlett's Station, and wounded or captured, two of the attacking party were secured.

That the best troops in the world can be surprised by unexpected events was shown yesterday at headquarters. Members of the Ninety-third New-York Volunteers had fire all day on the bank of a little streamnear by, to heat water for washing purposes. At night fall, when every man had returned to camp, a loud explosion was heard, and immediately something that sounded much like a shell, passed over headquarters. Many persons present supposed for an instant that the camp had been attacked, but upon investigating the affair, it was ascertained that one of the Ninety-third fires had been built in the vicinity of an unexploded shell, and eventually caused it to explode, the pieces flying in every direction. Had the explosion taken place a few minutes earlier several lives would undoubtedly have been sacrificed; as it was, no one was injured.

An unfortunate soldier, just at dark a few nights ago, while under the influence of Commissary Whisky, mounted a horse and rode down the Baltimore pike at a fearful rate. As he passed the reserve artillery, the rate of speed being in violation of an order, a sentinel endeavored to halt him. He did not hear, or at all events did not heed the command, when an officer stepped out and ordered the sentinel to fire. The soldiers in camp, hearing the order and supposing the person to be a bushwhacker who had been spying about, very soon overhauled the man, and but for the interference of two or three second-thought men, the unfortunate fellow would have been hoisted by the neck upon the nearest tree. An investigation developed the fact that the man was a soldier on a spree. E. A. PAUL.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

All Quiet Yesterday—Speculations as to Rebel Designs.

CHATTANOOGA, Friday, Nov. 6.

All is quiet to-day. The enemy keep up a lazy fire from a 20-pounder on the crest of Lookout, and their shell occasionally reach our lines. They varied the entertainment by throwing a few shells inside of their own lines, which strange conduct elicits much comment.

Last night several rebel camps disappeared from our front on our right; and information leads us to believe that BRAGG'S army has been weakened recently for some purpose not yet revealed.

LONGSTREET'S headquarters are established on Lookout Mountain. It is estimated that the rebels have expended $14,000 worth of ammunition from Lookout, and killed only one and wounded another Federal soldier.

Twelve deserters from a Kentucky rebel regiment report the whole regiment ready to follow at the first opportunity.

Since BRAGG was cut off the East Tennessee route, we are in daily communication with Bridgeport. Supplies come up rapidly, and our lines of communication are perfect.

Further Particulars of the Raid at Collierville.

MEMPHIS, Friday, Nov. 6.

The fight at Collierville yesterday lasted three hours, when the rebels fled, leaving 20 killed and four wounded. Our loss is slight.

Among the rebels captured are JAMES GEARY, Brigadier-General of Mississippi State militia, one Captain, three Lieutenants, and one Surgeon. Gen. GEARY was wounded.

Col. HATCH, who arrived at Collierville with three regiments of cavalry half an hour after the fight, commenced to follow the retreating rebels to Coldwater, where he was skirmishing with them at last accounts. Cols. MCCRELLIS and MISNER are endeavoring to flank them to-day. HATCH estimates their number at 3,000.

GEN. BURNSIDE'S ARMY.

Fight on the Little Tennessee—Gathering of a Large Rebel Army.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Friday, Nov. 6.

Gen. SANDERS, commanding the cavalry corps, reports overtaking a rebel regiment at Motley's Ford, on the Little Tennessee River, yesterday.

Col. ADAMS charged and drove them across the river, capturing forty, including four commissioned officers. Between forty and fifty were killed or drowned, and the whole regiment lost their arms.

The prisoners report a total of above fourteen rebel brigades, at various points beyond the Tennessee, under CHEATHAM, STEVENSON, VAUGHAN and FORREST.

Col. ADAMS, commanding our forces in the expedition, lost no men.

The First Regiment of Loyal Alabama Cavalry.

ST. LOUIS, Friday, Nov. 6.

A Cairo dispatch says two-thirds of the Loyal First Alabama cavalry, recently surrounded by a largely superior force, at Missiseville, Ala., cut their way out and have arrived at headquarters.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 6.

THE AFFAIRS OF TENNESSEE.

Dr. J. W. BOWEN, of Tennessee, one of those iron-nerved Unionists who are hourly ready to die for their principles, is here, bearer of a memorial, thickly signed by slaveholders, addressed to the President, and invoking through him the action of Congress to make Tennessee a State once more, and a Free State, and a State governed by genuine Unionists, and in the interests of freedom. Upon the subject of the election of Congressmen, this gentleman states that there is not a county in which an election could be held at which a supporter of Mr. LINCOLN'S Administration would be permitted to vote outside of our army lines and without the protection of military force. Slavery in Tennessee is dead upon the testimony of this witness. Gov. JOHNSON, in a speech, two weeks ago, stated that he had learned that a former speech of his, encouraging gradual emancipation, had given dissatisfaction. Immediate emancipation, said he, was to accompany the reorganization of the State and the reëstablishment of the laws. This he was thoroughly convinced of. He compared Slavery to a corroded piece of mechanism, and said the machinery of the State must be put together again in Tennessee without this corroded part. Parson BROWNLOW, too, proclaimed his purpose to advocate in the first number of his forthcoming paper the recruiting of every slave in East Tennessee. Three regiments of blacks already have been organized by GEO. L. STEARNS. This zealous patriot reports directly to Gov. JOHNSON and both act in conjunction in the commissioning of officers. Ten regiments of black troops are to be raised in Tennessee this winter. Of white regiments this torn and bleeding but indomitable State has already given to Union twenty.

THE TAX ON RECTIFYING.

Commissioner LEWIS has decided that a rectifyer must pay $25 for every 500 barrels rectified, and his license must expire on the first day of May following its issue. His license, if issued after the first of May, must be issued upon the payment of the ratable proportion of the whole amount of duty imposed for such license. If a rectifier's license is to be dated on the first day of November, a license may be issued on the payment of twelve dollars and a half, to expire the first of May following; and it will authorize rectifying at the rate of five hundred barrels per year, or any quantity not exceeding two hundred and fifty barrels during the time of its continuance. If this quantity is rectified before the expiration of the license, and the rectifier then applies for a new license the new will be issued upon the payment of the amount appropriate to the actual rate at which he may be doing business. If, in case the license shall be dated Nov. 1, for rectifying two hundred and fifty barrels, the quantity shall be rectified in the first four months following the issue of the license, the authority will be exhausted and a new license must be taken, for which the rectifier will be assessed the ratable proportion of $50, and will authorize the rectifying of the ratable proportion of 1,000 barrels. Such license will expire on the 1st day of May following, whether the specified quantity has been rectified or not. The same principle will regulate the issue of fractional licenses to distillers and brewers.

COMMANDS IN THE INVALID CORPS.

The examination of officers of the Invalid corps will commence as soon after the 1st of January as practicable. They will be examined as to their acquaintance with the regulations and tactics, so far as they bear upon the duties of regimental officers, and thdir qualifications as officers for their positions and for promotion.

A CONTRACTOR COME TO GRIEF.

One COLBY, a contractor, has become entangled badly in hospital bedsteads, and was sent to the Old Capitol Prison this morning.

SALARIES TO BE RAISED.

The Secretary of War will recommend an addition of $200 a year to the salaries of the War Department clerks.

ARMY ORDERS.

Lieut.-Col. PARKER A. PORTER, Commissary of Subsistence, has been ordered to report to Maj.-Gen. THOMAS, at Chattanooga.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 6.

Capt. JOHN RODGERS, ordered to command the Dictator.

Commander SOMERVILLE NICHOLSON, ordered to command the State of Georgia.

Surgeon J. J. ALBERNETTY, ordered to the naval rendezvous at New-York.

Assistant Surgeon JAMES M. HYDE, ordered to the Navy-yard, Washington.

First Assistant Engineer EDWARD MARSLAND, ordered to special duty at New York.

Second Assistant Engineer CHAS. H. BALL, ordered to the Kineo.

WILLIAM COMMONS, of Whitewater, Indiana, has been appointed an Assistant Surgeon in the navy.

Paymaster THOMAS H. LOOKER has relieved Paymaster HAMBERTON as Superintendent, &c., at Baltimore, and will also have charge of the Paymaster's department of the receiving-ship Alleghany.

Capt. JOHN R. GOLDSBOROUGH is ordered to ordnance duty at Portsmouth, N. H.

Lieut.-Commander HENRY D. TODD is detached from the Naval Academy and ordered to the Sangamon.

THOMAS H. WHITNEY has resigned his commission as Assistant Surgeon in the Navy.

First Lieut. L. M. GOLDSBOROUGH, of the U. S. Marine corps, son of Admiral GOLDSBOROUGH, died in Washington yesterday morning.

VOLUNTEERING IN WASHINGTON.

At a public meeting this evening, Ward Committees were appointed to aid and stimulate the enlistment of volunteers in the District of Columbia, in order to avoid the necessity of another draft.

THE MIXED COURT AT CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

The Interior Department has received official information from the Cape of Good Hope of the organization of the Mixed Court, established at that place pursuant to the treaty with Great Britain of April 7, 1862, for the suppression of the African slave-trade. The Court is composed as follows: On the part of the United States, Hon. Benjamin Pringle, Judge; William L. Avery, Arbitrator. On the part of Great Britain, George Frere, Esq., Judge: Edgar Leopold Tayaro, Arbitrator; William Tascar Smith, Register; Thomas Tenby, Marshal.

THE LABOR MOVEMENT.

The workmen and operatives in the Treasury building who have been on a strike for a week past against an order of the Superintendent, which, when brought into effect reduces their pay, will return to work to-morrow, as a preliminary to the consideration of their grievances by the Secretary of the Treasury, to whom they have appealed. The bookbinders in the Government printing office have thus far failed to have their pay advanced to eighteen dollars per week for eight hours a day. The printers in the same establishment are to hold a meeting to-morrow to determine upon their action for a similar demand. The former struck to-day. A Committee from the Navy-yard, consisting of a naval officer and several of the master mechanics, are inquiring into the number of hours worked outside by mechanics, with a view of regulating the hours now worked in the Navy-yard.

ARRIVAL OF DRAFTED MEN.

Large numbers of conscripts are daily arriving at Alexandria. Many were brought thither on Monday by the steamer Forrest City, and yesterday there was another reinforcement. They were soon afterward sent to the front.

DESERTERS.

The number of deserters committed to Forrest Hall prison in Georgetown, from Sept. 21 to Oct. 31, is 1,561, nearly all of whom have been forwarded to regiments in the field.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Nov. 6.

The Inquirer and the Bulletin, of this city, have reports of a terrible riot in the coal regions around Mauch Chunk.

Four men, it is reported, were killed last evening, including Mr. SMITH, of the firm of HULL, CORLIES & Co., of this city.

Gov. CURTIN, it is stated, has been telegraphed to for troops to quell the disturbance.

THOMAS HULL, of the firm of HULL, SMITH & CORLIES, has received a dispatch from Summit, Penn., that GEORGE K. SMITH, of that firm, has been shot dead by the rioters.

Mr. ULRICH, storekeeper, was also fired at by the rioters and wounded.

The reports of the Bulletin and Inquirer are thus confirmed of difficulties in the coal region.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Nov. 6—P. M.

It is not believed by the principal coal men in this city that the "riot" at Mauch Chunk is of a serious character. Mr. SMITH, who was killed, has incurred the hatred of the Irish miners by his opposition to their secret organization, which had for its object the exclusion of all the workmen of other countries.

A Welshman was recently found dead in the mines, having been shot. It is supposed that SMITH was shot while traveling from the mines to Jeanesville.

A force of military have been in that vicinity for some time enforcing the draft and arresting deserters.

The telegraph line between Mauch Chunk and Easton being down, direct communication cannot be obtained.

MAUCH CHUNK, Friday, Nov. 6.

Last night Mr. C. K. SMITH, coal operator at Yorktown, Carbon County, was murdered in a most brutal manner in his house, in the presence of his family, by a gang of Irish outlaws, known as "Buckshots."

Mr. SMITH was a loyal and highly respected gentleman, and was suspected of giving certain information to the Deputy Provost-Marshal, by which the latter, with the military under Capt. YATES, was enabled to arrest the drafted men.

No Union man's life is safe in Jewsville, Yorktown, Doleraine, Beaver Meadows and other mines of the middle coal fields.

Seven or eight murders were committed there within the last few weeks.

The Origin of the Troubles—Terrible Outrages—The Results of Copperhead Teachings.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

BEAVER MEADOWS, Friday, Nov. 5, 1863.

Banks Township, Carbon County, Pennsylvania, is a mining region of little note, yet a district lively with work, and embracing within its narrow circuit some of the richest coal orchards in Pennsylvania. Perched on the very highest portion of land in the State, in a cold and desolate region, peopled only by Irish, Welsh and German miners, and the few agents and owners of the mines, but little that transpires below ever comes up here. If the half which has occurred here within the past three months ever came down to the press and the news marts of the people below, a very edifying comment upon the beneficent influence of Copperhead teachings upon their innocent disciples would be furnished, the incendiary followers of WOODWARD, HORATIO SEYMOUR, &c. It is not exaggeration to say, that here in Banks Township, situate, lying, and being but one hundred and twenty miles from New-York City, and but one hundred miles from Philadelphia, a reign of mob-law, as full of incidents of riotous brutality, and daily scenes of cold blooded and deliberate murder has long existed, equaling the records of any period of equal length in any territory of the same size in Eastern Tennessee.

Last August, a peaceable, law-abiding citizen, residing in Beaver Meadows, was made the object of an attack from a riotous crowd of Irishmen, who, under the names of Buckshots and Molly McGuires, have disciplined themselves into an organization, in but few instances dissimilar to the Indian Thug. The assault was made at night by a detachment of these ruffians, with the evident design to take his life. The citizen shot one of the rascals, and a Home Guard company from Hazelton, a small village about four miles off, came down to the rescue, and the ruffians were dispersed. Subsequently the ringleader of the scoundrels was captured and lodged in jail at Mauch Chunk, a city of about 10,000 inhabitants, about twenty miles distant. At midnight of the second day after the arrest, a party of one hundred Buckshots went down to the city, surrounded the jail, compelled the Sheriff to liberate the prisoner, and marched him home in triumph. No efforts have ever been made to punish the mob nor to recapture the prisoner.

The success of this insolent violation of law and order inaugurated the reign of terror which has settled down on this district. Mob orators from Mauch Chunk have told these deluded miners that "they must not submit to the Lincoln tyranny, that the object is to draft every Democrat, that they must stand in the doors and resist every officer connected with the draft who comes near them," &c., &c. The results of this dissemination of the cardinal doctrines of Copperheadism are briefly summed up in the following statement of facts:

Those Irishmen who are reading or thinking men are all loyal. Every Welsh, English or German collier is unreservedly so. But those poor wretches who, in their blind ignorance, believe all that is told them, if only told in better English than their own brogue, have been inflamed by the treasonable doctrines and the inflammatory harangues of the villains who have sown this whirlwind. Organized, armed by a rifle manufactory within their own control, situated near the village of Hazelton, constantly drilled by night within plainsight of all who wish to see, these rebels have done the work of death for four months past, undisputed and unchecked by any civil authority, with no officer of the law or of the army to stay their hands. Within that time nearly a score of loyal men have been murdered here. In many instances the murderers are known. In the streets of Jeanesville men have been pulled out of their houses and cut to pieces in the streets. No man dare accept any civil office in the township. The draft enrollment has been made from the books of the mine owners. No man alive dare serve the notice. In any one of the mining villages he would not live one hour after the first service, if he ever succeeded in making that one. These men have openly boasted that "no draft dare ever to be made amongst them—that it was more than a man's life was worth to attempt it—that they would murder any soldier or body of soldiers that came near them," &c., &c. The few loyal people of the neighborhood have been for some time earnestly entreating assistance from the military authorities to save them from a reign of terror, every day becoming more full of hourly horror.

This they have at last obtained through Capt. YORK, Provost-Marshal of the Eleventh District of Pennsylvania. On Wednesday, the 28th ult., Capt. A. A. YATES, commanding the Eighty-eighth Company, Invalid corps, was ordered with his command to the rebellious district, to protect the Deputy Marshal in the service of the notices, and to enforce the peace and security of the neighborhood. On the way to the mines, during a temporary delay at Mauch Chunk, word was sent to the District-Attorney of Carbon County, Mr. Counseller LEONARD, that he had now an opportunity to arrest the murderers and rioters of the district; but the Democratic officer did not see fit to avail himself of the opportunity.

Capt. YATES established his headquarters at the mining district of Beaver Meadow. On Thursday morning, with a force of sixty men, he started to serve the notices. But as nobody either knew or dared to tell where anybody lived, the work was slow enough. Beyond a few curses, equal in emphasis and sincerity to anything that the veterans had ever heard in the front, and an attack upon a sentry by a drunken Buckshot, no resistance was offered. On approaching the mines, however, one of the rebels stationed as a picket fired a gun at the party, and about fifty left for Jenesville, a rendezvous about two miles distant. Word was brought that the rioters had assembled in mass at that place, and that from three to four hundred were ready to surround and bushwhack the soldiery in their further progress. A scout sent out among them confirmed this statement. Communication was immediately had with Hazelton, in the adjoining district, and a force of thirty cavalry and one hundred infantry started from there to Janesville on the morning of Friday, to cooperate with Capt. YATES. On entering Janesville on Friday the place was perfectly quiet; but in the course of half an hour the streets began to fill, and the mob to cluster and growl along the sidewalk. The commanding officer, determining to nip this embryo New-York plug muss in the bud, ordered the street to be cleared. This was done in about five minutes, but in the operation, one Buckshot was badly sabred. He is at this time passing the last moments of his rebellious life. The houses were then searched and a wagon-load of arms and ammunition, among them some United States muskets, taken away. So great is the dread of these ruffians that the good people of Janesville implored the forces not to leave the place. The wife of one of the mine-owners told the commanding officer that as the children were playing on the corners on Sunday, the 25th ult., one of the ruffians fired a musket ball in among them, fortunately injuring no one. That on the Monday following, a man was cut to pieces before her door.

The mine-owners are completely under control of these ruffians. They have to pay wages, in all instances as much as $80; in most cases $120 to $150 a month. They compel many loyal Irishmen to join them, and kill many who refuse. A few brave souls there are here, who defy them, but the majority of the people are cowed by their brutality and great numerical force.

Reinforcements are about to be sent to Capt. YATES to clear out the district. To this end he has offered his services to drill and discipline all citizen organizations that apply to him. We trust he will succeed.

SUPPLIES IN THE SOUTH.

Scarcity of Food among the Rebels—An Alleged Intercepted Letter from the Rebel Commissary-General.

The importance of the following document will at once be recognized, if it is in reality what it is alleged to be—an intercepted letter from the rebel Commissary-General, designed only for perusal by high officials:

ATHENS, April 25, 1863.

Hon. James A. Seldon, Secretary of War:

SIR: As the excessive want of supplies in this Department will require me to proceed back to Atlanta, Ga., before returning to the Capital, I deem it expedient, in view of the present importance of time, to acquaint you by letter of the impressions I received from my conference with the Governors, &c. Govs. BROWN, SHORTER and VANCE only were present, but Gov. PETTUS, I have learned, arrived at Milledgeville after my departure.

All agree that the planters of their States evince no disposition to seed for more than the usual quantity of grain and other articles necessary for the subsistence of the people and the army. Neither the resolutions of Congress, requesting the President to appeal to the people, nor the appeal itself, have produced any visible effect. Such of the planters as doubt the expediency of raising more cotton and tobacco seem bent upon clearing up new lands instead of tilling those now fit for cultivation. In riding by rail from Milledgeville to this point, I passed, as you are aware, through one of the best corn districts in Georgia, and not one acre in fifty, as I am assured by my own observations and the reports of travelers on the road, is being prepared for raising that indispensable article, or other products requisite for the subsistence of man and beast.

It is lamentable that the people are so deaf to the appeals of their representatives and so blind to their own interests. It is obvious that something must be done immediately, or both the people and army must starve next Winter. This is an alarming reflection, but it is fully warranted by the situation. Now is the time to avert the impending danger. A few days more and it will be too late.

Several plans were suggested by the Governors for promoting our object—among them that of convoking the farmers at numerous points throughout the States and addressing them through prominent speakers on the absolute importance of meeting the wants of the nation. Although this plan was favorably regarded, it was deemed too late in the season to attain the desired results by its execution, and the Governors finally decided to send an address—not to be published by the Press, exposing our wants to the enemy—to all the leading planters in their respective States, urging upon them the imperative necessity of producing all the grain, live-stock, &c., possible. But since the appeal of the President is disregarded by this class of citizens, what response can we expect them to make to a similar appeal of the Governors? In my judgment, none.

It is only by more rigorous, and indeed arbitrary, measures, that we can prevent distress in our towns, and subsist the armies in the field through next Winter and Spring. The appeal put forth by the President, and the one proposed by the Governors will be entirely useless. This is the opinion also of Gen. BRAGG, with whom I yesterday conferred two hours at Dalton. The General suggests three plans for preventing the threatened famine. The first is, that the President, by proclamation, prohibit the raising of any more cotton and tobacco or clearing of new lands until further notice. The second is, that by proclamation he order all planters to seed a certain number of acres of grain or other articles of necessary consumption, in proportion to the quantity of cleared land and negroes belonging to them. The third is for the Government to take possession of the plantations, or such portion of them as the owners do not intend to seed with grain, &c., and employ the negroes belonging thereto in raising such agricultural products. Officers and soldiers who have been rendered by wounds and disease unfit for further service in the field could be employed as superintendents and overseers.

The last mentioned plan appears to me to be feasible and entirely the best that can now be adopted. As reasonable compensation would of course be allowed for the use of the land and negroes, &c., I think the plan would in general meet with favor. At all events, the measure would be no more arbitrary than others the Government has been forced to resort to, and in view of the emergency, and as a military necessity it would be perfectly justifiable.

The wheat harvests, it is easy to see and learn from a trip through the country, will not be half as bountiful as we have anticipated; and the belief into which the Government has been led, that there are large quantities of bacon in many parts of the country, is erroneous. The inventory ordered by Gov. BROWN of the bacon and live stock in Georgia, (of which you have by this time probably received a copy,) shows the well-nigh exhausted condition of that State, and yet, beyond peradventure, it is less nearly exhausted than any other State in the Confederacy.

It will, therefore, be no easy matter to keep our armies in the field without causing suffering among the people till the harvests are gathered next Autumn. From that time we shall be entirely dependent on those harvests, and that they may be rendered adequate to our wants, I unhesitatingly recommend the adoption of the third plan suggested by Gen. BRAGG.

Let the emergency be urged upon the President while there is yet time to save ourselves. Your obedient servant, L. B. NORTHROP, Commissary-General, C. S. A.

AFFAIRS IN FRANCE.

The Vessels-of-War Building for the Rebels—They are to be Stopped by the French Government—Reorganization of the Emperor's Cabinet—Movements of the Opposition Members—Funeral of M. Billault—Miscellaneous.

From Our Own Correspondent.

PARIS, Friday, Oct. 23, 1863.

Some weeks ago it was announced in the journals of Nantes and Bordeaux that vessels-of-war were being built in those towns for an unknown destination, but which were suspected to be for the Confederates. Since then investigations have taken place which appear to establish the following facts: After the judicial decision in England in the case of the Alexandra, several of the leading shipbuilders of France, who, till then, had resisted the offers of the Confederate agents, agreed to enter into a contract for the building of ships for the Confederate navy and privateer service, M. ARMAN, member of the Legislative Corps, and the largest shipbuilder in France, taking the contract for four vessels, and another large house at Nantes a contract for two. Four of the six vessels were contracted for in April, and these four were to be finished in December; the other two were contracted for in July, and were to be delivered next Spring. All of these vessels, it appears, are in a state of forwardness corresponding to the dates indicated in the contracts, and they appear, also, to be vessels of very formidable character. The contracts are said to be signed by Messrs. SLIDELL and ERLANGER—the latter paying for the vessels out of the proceeds of the fifteen million Confederate loan. But as the builders of these ships are not working from any particular enthusiasm for the Confederate cause, they exact current payments, and three millions of francs, in French money, appear to have been already paid by M. ERLANGER on account.

The builders of these vessels, as agreed upon with the Confederate agents, maintain that they are for the service of the Chinese Government, and that a part of them, at least, are intended for the mail line between Shanghai and San Francisco. What a happy man must be the Emperor of China, to have all the world occupied in building him a navy without his knowledge!

These ships will be stopped by the French Government.

The Emperor has not waited long in reorganizing his Cabinet. Before, there were two Ministers-orators charged with the defence of the Government in the Chambers, to wit: M. BILLAULT, with the title of Minister of State, and as such the head of the Cabinet, and M. ROUHER, with the title of Minister Presiding the Council of State. Now we are to have M. ROUHER as Minister of State, and chief of the Cabinet, M. ROULLAND as Minister Presiding the Council of State, and to these two official defenders are to be joined four others, to wit: M. VUITRY, President of the Bank of France, honorary Vice-President of the Council of State, and Messrs. DE PARIEU, CHAIX-D'EST-ANGE and DE FORCADE LA ROQUETTE, Vice-Presidents of the Council of State. Thus, instead of two defenders of the Government there will be six, (which may be taken indirectly as a great compliment to the deceased M. BILLAULT,) but the principal work of defence will fall upon Messrs. ROUHER, ROULLAND and CHAIX-D'EST-ANGE. M. ROUHER is a liberal in politics, and a man of fixed principles, who will be less liable to blindly follow the indications of his master than was M. BILLAULT; at the same time the Opposition will not treat him with the same systematic hostility they would have done M. BILLAULT. M. ROULLAND is the late Minister of Public Instruction, and has arrived at his present place through the Bar and the Bench; whereas M. ROUHER, who is also a lawyer, arrives through agriculture, commerce and public works. M. CHAIX-D'EST-ANGE is a distinguished criminal lawyer, late Attorney-General and now Senator, which latter function he will be obliged to resign.

The Opposition members of the Legislature are holding meetings to settle upon their plan of campaign against the Government. M. JULES FAVRE will take the lead on the Mexican question, and M. GUEROULT on the American question. M. THIERS declared in the caucus, much to the disgust of his Republican colleagues, that he was in favor of non-intervention in Poland, and of the statu quo at Rome. He is, however, opposed to the prolonged occupation of Mexico, but will probably spend most of his time in harassing the Government on interior questions. The Chambers, which meet in three weeks, will probably spend the first month in the discussion of contested seats, and other matters pertaining to the organization of a new body, which will give time to M. ROUHER to arrange his defences against the attacks of the Opposition. As for the two vacant seats at Paris, Prof. LABOULAGE and M. RENAN, author of the Life of Jesus, are talked of by the Opposition. It is almost certain at least that the first-named of these two gentlemen will be chosen as the candidate of the Opposition; and as there can scarcely be any doubt of his election we will thus have in the Chamber the strongest friend of the Union amongst French politicians.

The Mexican Committee have returned to Paris, and forwarded to Mexico the secret history of their interview with the Grand Duke MAXIMILIAN. The Grand Duke has also written a long letter to the Junta, explaining the situation in full. The Committee have not yet been received by the Emperor since their return, but anticipate a reception before their departure, ten days hence, for Mexico. The Memorial Diplomatique, which is the Austrian organ at Paris, contradicts a report to the effect that the Grand Duke and Duchess were coming to Paris next month to visit the Emperor and Empress at Compeigne, and says that they will only come to Paris when on their way to Mexico. But many things may happen to prevent this visit.

The funeral of M. BILLAULT, on Saturday last was a most brilliant affair, but what was curious to most people, the Emperor and the young King of Greece went hunting together the same day, in the forest of Versailles. So too, the day M. BILLAULT died, the Emperor, almost immediately after hearing of his death, paid a long visit to an Exhibition of Useful Arts on the Champs Elysées. This conduct of His Majesty is construed to mean that he desires it to be understood that he is the Government, and that his surroundings are units, whose death is a matter of indifference in the general march of affairs. I need hardly say that this sentiment of his Majesty, if the supposition be true, does not meet a general approval. His Majesty has generally had the reputation of great consideration and a warm feeling toward his friends, and there is no other explanation of his conduct in the present case, than that of wishing to deceive the public as to the extent of the loss he has suffered.

Yesterday the Marshal D'ORNANO, Governor of the Hotel des Invalides, and the last of the Generals of Division of the First Empire, was buried in the vaults of the hotel reserved for the Governors. The Duke of Malakoff or the Marshal VAILLANT will probably succeed the deceased as Governor of the Invalides. There are now but ten Marshals, and the number may be carried to twelve.

The scientific and social world of Paris is occupied just now with M. NADAR'S balloon ascensions. Since two days M. NADAR has been in the air with a dozen people as adventurous as himself, but no uneasiness is felt, since the balloon has already been tried in a previous ascension and proved capable of sustaining a much greater weight at high or low altitudes.

AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher in Exeter Hall—Great Excitement—The Russian Flirtation—English Irritation—The Rams—Feeling and Action—British Rebellions—Japan—Points of Interest—Secession Literature and Organizations—Miss Bateman—Julien—A Cassino—Social Conditions.

From Our Own Correspondent.

LONDON, Saturday, Oct. 24, 1863.

Decidedly, the event of the week has been the appearance of Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER—the gentleman whom the London Times has so often designated as "Mr. BEECHER STOW"—at Exeter Hall, on Tuesday evening. It had all the characteristics of a great sensation.

The papers, of course, had duly reported the excitement, "noise and confusion" which had attended Mr. BEECHER'S public appearance in Liverpool, where the Southern sympathizers gathered in force, and were as noisy as an English mob knows how to be. A similar scene was expected in London. On Tuesday morning the streets were found placarded with no less than six different posters, quoting from former speeches of Mr. BEECHER and denouncing President LINCOLN, Gen. BUTLER, &c. Mr. BEECHER'S saying, that the best blood of England must atone for the affair of the Trent, and his demand some years ago for a dissolution of the Union as a means of getting rid of Slavery, were conspicuously quoted. Crowds were seen all day around these posters.

In the meantime, every seat in Exeter Hall had been sold at half a crown or a shilling. Not one could be had after noon, while the demand grew every hour more pressing. At night a vast crowd gathered in the Strand, and filled the whole square around the Hall. Those who had tickets and could get through the crowd, filled the house. The rest stayed out in the cold, and tried to get up some speaking, but the English were not up to these out-door meetings. There is a lack of speakers. In an American crowd, every tenth man can make a speech. Not so here.

When the centre of all this attraction came, to the circumference of the crowd, that is to say, when Mr. BEECHER esssayed to make his way into Exter Hall, there was a difficulty. It was useless to try to elbow through, and not easy to walk over. At last, a body of policemen took him on their shoulders, formed themselves into a wedge, and pushed through, carrying the Yankee preacher, in a sort of triumph, into the temple of British philanthropy. He came upon the platform amid a tremendous excitement. The City Chamberlain tried to introduce him in a complimentary speech, English fashion. No use. The people wished to hear Mr. BEECHER and nobody else. They drowned out or dried up the domestic orator, and Mr. BEECHER took the platform. Then came an uproar. A storm of cheers, then an undercurrent of hisses, then another, louder and longer storm of cheers, with waving of hats, handkerchiefs and umbrellas, which only subsided to let the hisses come out again. But as the cheerers were ten to one to the hissers, the contest was soon over, and Mr. BEECHER made an able address of more than two hours in length, without much interruption.

"How about the Russians?" shouted somebody. This was a poser. It happens that the papers and the public in England, who support the Northern cause, also sympathize with the Poles and detest the Russians. The Morning Star, for example, the only "out and out" Northern paper in London, (for the News sometimes wavers,) is, at the same time, the most strenuous advocate of Polish independence. You will see that it was putting Mr. BEECHER in a rather tight place. He got out of it with a pleasantry and a disclaimer. He said it was only a bit of coquetry. America was like a girl whose lover was not so ardent as she wished him to be, and who was trying to pique him by pretending to favor another suitor. But there was nothing in it. England was really the only country in Europe that the Americans cared for, and now he could go home and assure them that their affection was fully reciprocated!

There was a dose for Exter Hall! They swallowed it, however. Gruff John Bull does not get flattered often—when he does, it comes to him with all the charm of novelty. "It is true," said Mr. BEECHER, (of course I do not give his words,) "that we have been annoyed at what we consider unfriendly treatment: but we love England after all, and since the rams have been stopped, and Earl RUSSELL has said that a majority of the English people favor the North, it is all right once more. We shall have nothing to do with the Russians."

It is undoubtedly true that the reception of the squadron of the Czar in New-York has given great annoyance. The idea of an alliance between the two gigantic Powers of the East and West is not a pleasant one to either French or English. Even if there were no such alliance, the fact that the Czar sends his fleets to Winter in the ports of America is a menace to the Western Powers. In case of war they are not frozen up in the Baltic, nor can they be blockaded. It is necessary for Russia to have some such ports for her navy. Aside from her distant harbors in the Pacific, she has none which cannot be closed by any strong naval Power. It would be easy for England and France, even in Summer, to shut up the whole Russian navy in the Black Sea and the Baltic. But with access to the harbors and dockyards, and all the marine resources of the United States, it is quite another affair. An arrangement by which Russia can have the use of these—an alliance to this extent—makes her at once a first-rate naval as well as military Power.

As to the rams, I think there is no more to be apprehended. It is morally certain that they were built for the Confederates. We have the official declaration of the naval authorities at Richmond that six such vessels have been contracted for expressly to break the blockade. This may not be legal proof, as against the rams building by Mr. LAIRD, but it is that moral certainty on which a Government can act if it has either the disposition or the necessity. I question very much the disposition, but I have explained the necessity. England cannot risk a war, not even for cotton. She has counted the cost and it wont pay. The rise in cotton goods will pay for feeding the operatives until a supply comes from other sources. A good deal leaks through the blockade. Small lots are coming from a hundred places—not all of the best quality, but better than none. They can raise a finer sea-island cotton in Australia than ever came from Georgia. So, as a mere question of economy, the English have decided against intervention, or any action that might involve a war.

That this resolution is not accompanied with any change of feeling, the columns of the Times, Morning Post, Advertiser, Telegraph, and Punch ought to convince you. Perhaps the most remarkable of all those indices of public opinion is Punch, always a liberal paper, always philanthropic, always anti-Slavery; owned and published by men identified with what is called liberal politics—yet, look at it! Look at the cartoon in its last number of the fraternization of President LINCOLN and the Russian Czar. Punch, like the monthlies and quarterlies, expresses the feeling of the literature and philanthropy of England, with a few exceptions, respecting the war in America. There are exceptions, certainly, amounting to, perhaps, one-tenth. Among the new books announced by Mr. MUDIE, you will find Rev. BAYARD NOYES

Rebellion in America, but you will also find Battle Fields of the South, by an English Combatant, Dr. DABNEY'S Memoirs of Gen. Stonewall Jackson, and Mrs. GREENHOW'S account of her imprisonment. The English do not willingly read an American book, or book about America, but there is no doubt a[s] to respective popularity of works devoted to the [in]ests of the North or the South. Perhaps th[e] lish, who imagine themselves possessed of a... the religion, virtue, and honesty extant, also claim a monopoly of loyalty. It is certain that they are ready to help all rebels except their own.

Perhaps I ought also to except the Taepings, but the British consider the rebellion in China as against themselves. They have, morally, or ideally, taken possession of the country, the same as in India. The Emperor is under their protection. Of course his rebels are their rebels, and are to be treated accordingly—Sepoy fashion. We have also got a little rebellion in New-Zealand. The Maories decline to be robbed of their land, and are to be exterminated. The sentence is passed with the greatest coolness by the newspapers. They profess, indeed, to regret the necessity, but do not the less recognize it as such. I saw a party of these New-Zealanders here last Summer. They came, I believe, to appeal for justice to the Government. A finer race, in appearance, one would not expect to see. Certainly they compared very favorably, men and women, with the mass of the British people that crowded to stare at them.

There is also a war begun in Japan. A town has been burnt—but a Japanese town, made of bamboo and paper, is no great affair. The British also lost severely. You must not bombard cities with Greek fire or other fire—but Englishmen may burn Japanese towns, and exterminate New-Zealanders, at their pleasure. They are horrified at Parson BROWNLOW'S "Greek fire for the masses and h—l fire for the leaders"—but, if they have neither of these kinds, they give their enemies, in the meantime, the best they have at their disposal.

The secession sympathizers are beginning to organize for action in that slow and formal way of which the English are so fond. There are Southern Clubs, Recognition Societies, and we are to have a Secession Exchange in London. There is a Society formed to erect a statue, cost 1,500 pounds, to "Stonewall" JACKSON. There is a Society to raise funds for Southern prisoners of war confined in Northern prisons. Britons are expected to clasp these gallant and heroic Southerners to their hearts—which they will do as soon as they can see their way clear and believe it will pay. Apropos, the interest of the Confederate Loan is announced as ready for the bondholders who have not a ready turned their coupons into cotton.

I ought, perhaps, to notice the very decided success achieved by Miss BATEMAN at the Adelphi. Her portraits are in the shop windows, and the theatre, in this off season, is crowded nightly to see her in an otherwise unattractive drama. Even the fact of her supposed Americanism, and consequent nasal twang, detracts but little from her triumph. There is something very droll about this Americanism. I have heard English squeakers as nasal as any New-Englander. I have heard them say keow, like any Yankee. In fact, there are whole sections of England where the pronunciation is as thoroughly Yankee as you ever heard it among the White or Green Mountains, or on the stage, while in other parts their squeak is utterly incomprehensible. Still they keep harping upon Americans. Drury Lane is running BYRON'S "Manfred" with music and magnificent scenery. WALLACE'S new opera at Covent Garden is successful, being popular in airs and scenic effect. JULLIEN, son of that magnificent lord of the bâton whom we admired at Castle Garden, is to give a series of promenade concerts at Her Majesty's Theatre. This JULLIEN is a clever leader, and a man of literary ability, if he wrote, as it is said he did, a series of articles on the French soldier, in All the Year Round. I went to the Argyle Rooms one night, to see if he was like his father. I found him in a handsome saloon, but dingy, as English saloons are apt to be, leading an effective band, and giving some very good music. But what an audience! The feminine portion of it belonged entirely to a class difficult to mention out of a police report, and politely characterized hereabout as the "social evil," while the male portion was mainly made up of old and young reprobates, such as would naturally seek their company, without the grace of being ashamed of it. There were a few quiet persons who came to hear the music, strangers, perhaps, and not aware of the sort of company which an artist and composer and man of letters was doing his best to amuse. The second part of the concert was dance music, and the fair anonymas and their brave partners made the most of it, in one of those unceremonious hops where introductions are not required, and gentlemen wear hats and ladies wear bonnets. Passing through a narrow alley down town, a day or two afterward, I nearly ran against a tall, good-looking young man—a banking clerk, I should say, by the look of him—whom I recognized as one of the most affectionate-seeming partners of one of the fairest of the frail ladies dancing to JULLIEN'S exquisite music. He had the grace to blush at the mutual recognition.

London, perhaps, is not worse than other great commercial cities; but there are things more repulsive. What would you think, for instance, of scores of the vilest women in town living and sleeping all Summer in the Central Park, as they do here in Hyde Park? Think of the drive and Rotten Row, with their fashion and splendor, and this houseless horde of outcasts sleeping under the trees. As the cold weather comes on they are taken to the workhouses.

These things are written about here, but not mended. For twenty years they have been writing about laborers' cottages, and the landlords who have made any reform might probably be counted on your fingers. Thousands of women are engaged in the roughest out-door work—mining, agricultural labor, &c. These are better off than thousands more whose lives are simply used up in the heat and fumes of the potteries, where they work almost naked, on account of the heat, or amid poisons that destroy life. If the English were like the Irish, they would emigrate, and get out of so much misery; but they are too far gone, too stupefied with misery and bad beer, for such a remedy. I see no way out of it. "It's a' a muddle," as poor STEPHEN BLACKPOOL said. One must live, and live for a considerable time, in England, to see how true—how terribly true—his words were, and the picture drawn of his condition.

Whenever an American gets dissatisfied with his country, and the chances for happiness it gives, he should be sentenced to transportation to England for—well, I do not wish to be cruel—say three years, with or without benefit of clergy—it won't make much difference. MONADNOCK.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Naval Movements.

PREPARATIONS FOR ANOTHER RUSSIAN FLEET.

Preparations are being made in naval circles for the reception of another fleet of men-of-war, which are reported to have left Cronstadt and Sebastopol on the 18th ult. It is said to consist of four line-of-battle ships, four first-class steam-frigates, and four smaller vessels. A squadron of eight vessels had sailed from Russian ports between the 1st and 14th, which was supposed to be destined for the United States, but as it has not arrived here, persons qualified to judge conjecture that it has gone to the South Atlantic, to winter on the coast of Brazil. Two or three other vessels, it is said, have sailed to the Indian Ocean.

YESSELS OFFERED TO THE GOVERNMENT.

The following vessels have been offered to the Government: C. M. JACKSON & Co., Baltimore, offer to sell light draught steamer Wanerock for $22,000. D. VANNEMAN offers to sell the steamer Port Deposit for $5.500; or to charter her at $38 per day; referred by Brig.-Gen. D. H. RUCKER. E. A. SOUDER & Co., Philadelphia, propose to charter steamer W. W. Frazer at $60 per day, and her price to be at an appraised valuation. BAKER & FOLSOM, Philadelphia, propose to sell steamship C. L. Clark for $110,000, or to charter her at $300 per day. C. F. WAGER, Washington, offers to charter steamer Sarah E. Brown at $50 per day—Government to furnish fuel; also, he offers to charter steamboat Trumpeter at $80 per day—Government to furnish fuel. Capt. A. BOYD submits proposals from T. E. CAHILL, Philadelphia, to charter steamer Thomas E. Cahill at $87 50 per day. C. CHAMBERLAIN, Jr., submits proposals of the steamer Samuel L. Brewster to sell for $50,000, or to charter at $150 per day.

THE IRON-CLAD AGAMENTICUS.

The work of plating the Agamenticus is progressing rapidly, and when completed she will be a formidable ally against the rebels or any other foe. Four thicknesses of one-inch plating are bolted to her sides. It was formerly customary in bolting the iron on vessels to drive the bolts through the side of the ship and secure them by nuts on the inside. Upon trial, this was found to be an error, the bolts breaking and flying in all directions, rendering a position inside the vessel nearly as unsafe as exposure to the shot outside. Now, blunt bolts are used, driven about half or two-thirds of the way through.

The Supposed Murder in Washington-Street.

RESULT OF THE CORONER'S INQUEST.

In the TIMES of yesterday we published an account of the fact that THOMAS BENNETT was found dead at a late hour on Thursday night in a room at house No. 100 Washington-street, with his throat cut from ear to ear. At the time his body was discovered, it was believed by the Police, and also by the neighbors who lived in the adjoining premises, that BENNETT had been murdered by his wife, Mrs. MARY BENNETT. Coroner NAUMANN held an inquest on the body yesterday, and a large amount of testimony was taken; so failed, however, to fix the crime of homicide on the wife. The jury rendered the following verdict, viz.: That Thomas BENNETT came to his death by an incised wound of the throat, but whether it was [illegible] jury are unable to determine [illegible] age, and a native of Ireland. He had been an invalid for several weeks past, and the better opinion, since the testimony was given upon the inquest, is, that he had become tired of life, and took the opportunity, when his wife was grossly intoxicated, to end his existence by means of a razor. Coroner NAUMANN has, however, thought fit to hold the wife to await an inquisition of the Grand Jury.

THE WIND STORM YESTERDAY.

Great Excitement in the Harbor—Damage to Shipping, &c.

Yesterday afternoon the City and harbor was visited by one of the severest storms we have had in this locality for several years. About one o'clock a strong wind set in from the west, which in less than an hour increased to a violent gale. So suddenly did the storm come up that many of the craft in the harbor were entirely unprepared to meet it, and in consequence drifted about the Bay in the wildest confusion. Three lighters were dismasted on the North River, and a schooner, while trying to reach the Atlantic Docks, lost all her sails. The ship Atmosphere, bound for Liverpool, was struck by the gale, and although she was being towed by a powerful tug, went on to Coenties' Reef. The vessel was subsequently got off without much damage. A man was capsized in a small boat near Governor's Island, and it is supposed was drowned, as no one was seen to go to his assistance. The Russian steam "clipper," (so ranked in the Russian navy,) Almaz dragged her anchor and came near going on shore at Castle Garden. Fortunately the vessel had steam up, which saved her from disaster.

The canal-boat E. B. Simons broke from her moorings, and when nearly on shore at Castle Garden was taken in tow by the tug William Foot, and saved from wreck. The most serious disaster that happened during the day was the sinking of lighter Norma by the Russian corvette Wariag. During the heighth of the gale the latter vessel broke from her anchorage, and before any assistance could be rendered drifted rapidly on to the bar at the foot of pier No. 13. Before striking the bar she came in collision with several vessels, but did no considerable damage until she struck the Norma, which she sunk. The accident happened about 3 o'clock, and was preceded by the wildest excitement. It was thought the Wariag—one of the largest class of war vessels—would come in contact with and sink four or five small vessels in her way, and, as many of them were crowded with people, loss of life seemed imminent. Fortunately, however, the corvette, after sinking the Norma, struck on the bar and there remained. The Norma, at the time of the accident, was discharging freight on to the brig Cyprus. In the collision the Cyprus sustained some damage, as well as the propeller Thomas Swan, lying at the opposite pier. The Wariag lost a man overboard and one of her lifeboats; she was also slightly damaged in her rigging.

The new propeller El Cid was in considerable danger at one time, but escaped without injury. The Wariag was finally got off, by the combined assistance of three tugs, and towed into the stream. During the storm, which did not abate its violence until near sundown, the Italian man-of-war Italia dragged her anchor and nearly went on shore. No further accidents of any importance have been reported. We shall probably hear to-day of many casualities outside of the harbor.

THE GALE IN THE CITY.

During the entire afternoon pedestrians found it exceeding inconvenient, and sometimes dangerous, passing through the streets. Several signs were blown down on Broadway, and in the upper part of the City two or three new buildings suffered considerably. With the exception of mishaps to luckless individuals, who were obliged to seek shelter behind all sorts of structures, the falling of a few chimneys, and such other incidents of slight importance, there was nothing to mark the great "blow."

IN BROOKLYN.

The wind yesterday not only filled the streets with clouds of dust, and proved a source of great inconvenience to pedestrians, but caused considerable damage throughout the City by the blowing down of fences, chimney-tops, awnings, trees, &c. Several buildings also were damaged, and two persons injured. The engine-house of No. 17, in Jay-street, near Willoughby, is undergoing repairs. The roof is being raised, and a new story added. The side-walls had been erected, but the front and rear were still open. One of the end walls gave way, and fell with a tremendous crash upon the roof of an adjoining house, (No. 287,) occupied by Mrs. S. W. Townsend as a boarding and day school. There were some fifty scholars—young ladies engaged at their studies at the time, and the crash of falling bricks caused great consternation among them. It appeared as if the whole house was coming down. The roof, covering two attic rooms, was smashed in. One young lady, who felt unwell, was lying on a bed, and another was resting on a lounge; both were injured; one was cut on the head and the other sustained an injury of the spine; they were covered with rubbish, but managed to save themselves. The day scholars were on the lower floor, and escaped unhurt. The damage to the building amounts to about $100. The engine-house was injured to about the same amount. The wind blew with tremendous force in some exposed places. A car, in turning the corner of Prospect and Main streets, was blown off the track, but no further damage resulted. A frame house, No. 126 Meserole-street, was blown down by the gale. It was unoccupied. Damage about $500.

IN WILLIAMSBURGH.

The lofty hickory pole at the corner of North Fourth and Fourth streets, was blown down, and it came very near annihilating several horses. The same storm unroofed a house in First-street, Brooklyn, E. D., damaging it to a considerable extent. Near by two little children were under a wooden awning when it fell to the ground, but strange to say they were neither of them injured. A fatal accident occurred at the lumber yard of KEITH & Co., foot of North First-street, about 2½ o'clock, to a teamster named MATHEW CONROY, in the employ of Messrs. JOHNSON & SPADER. The injured man was crushed by a pile of lumber blown over by the force of the wind, and so badly injured internally and about the head that it was the belief of several physicians he could not survive the night. He is married and resides in Kent-avenue, near Willoughby-street. Officer VAN DYKE took him home.

IN JERSEY CITY.

As far as could be ascertained the only damage done in Jersey City was a considerable destruction to the trees and shrubbery. On the river, however, where the gale had clear scope, it was far different. The Russian war vessels dragged their anchors, and also the Italian war vessel, and for a while it appeared their course would not be arrested until they came against the docks on the New-York side; the second bow anchors were let go, and finally all the vessels came to except the Admiral's, which went in stern first at Pier No. 13, New-York, crushing and carrying down a lighter which was lying at the dock. The Admiral's ship was lying against the pier apparently aground, but did not seem to be injured. Steam was got up and two tug boats were employed, and eventually the vessel was hauled out.

C. Godfrey Gunther and the Mayoralty.

NEW-YORK, Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1863.

C. Godfrey Gunther, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: At a meeting of the Mayoralty Convention of the City and County of New-York, convened on Monday evening, Oct. 26, at the Sinclair House, corner of Broadway and Eighth-street, in pursuance of a call of the New-York Democratic General Committee, you received the unanimous nomination as their candidate for Mayor of the City of New-York in the approaching December election.

The above Convention, selected in accordance with the old-time principles and usages of the Democratic party, coming fresh from the primary assemblages of the people, and representing and wielding their unbought suffrages, have with one voice chosen you as their standard-bearer in the December election; they have done so, Sir, because they recognize in you the possession of those qualities which qualify you in an eminent degree for the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of the high and important position to which they desire to see you elevated, and because they are not unmindful of your past public services, and of the sacrifices you have made for the public good.

The pleasing duty of tendering to you the nomination of the New-York Democracy, through its Convention, for Mayor of this great City, has been deputed to the undersigned. This duty we most cordially and cheerfully discharge; and we do so with the confident and proud assurance that in your acceptance of the nomination which we have the honor to tender you, our action will be sustained by an incorruptible yet long outraged people, who have at length determined, in the strength of their uprising, to crush the vampire host that have so long battened upon and disgraced our City, and rescue its government from corruption and misrule, by placing at its head one whose acknowledged ability and intimate acquaintance with all that appertains to the interests and welfare of New-York, as well as his sterling integrity, afford the strongest gurantee that its affairs will be ably and honestly administered.

We have the honor to be, yours, respectfully,

JOHN H. WILLIAMS,
FREDERICK L. VULTE,
THOMAS McSPEDON,
JOHN S. GILES,
JOHN CAFFREY,
S. H. McDONOUGH,
C. F. WATTS,
MICHAEL LARKIN.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 28, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: In reply to your very flattering notice of my nomination for Mayor of this City, I would state that, having received the nomination from the Constitutional Union Convention, the German Central Democratic Organization, as well as from various Ward Clubs and Associations, (which are determined to run my name at the coming Mayoralty election, whether I do or do not consent,) I deem it a duty I owe my friends and the public, to decide at once; and I hereby, irrespective of all other consierations that would justify my refusal to accept any nomination at present, consent to be placed before the people of this City for their suffrages.

I am, very truly, your obedient servant,

C. GODFREY GUNTHER.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

A SAFE BLOWN OPEN—THREE BURGLARS ARRESTED.—Sergt. GAY, of the Twenty-first Precinct, while patroling Fortieth-street, near Third-avenue, at an early hour yesterday morning, heard a loud noise, as though an explosion had taken place, in the vicinity. Believing that burglars were at work, he at once gave the alarm rap, and a sufficient number of Policemen were speedily on hand to surround the whole block. Search was made, and the coach manufactory of M. GEORGE FIELDING, situated at No. 132 East Forty-first-street, was found to have been entered by burglars, and a safe on the premises had just been blown open. An examination showed that about $300 in money had been abstracted. Three men, who gave their names as JOHN COOLEY, JAMES SHAY and JAMES MAGEE, were found secreted in an adjoining yard. They were taken into custody and held for examination. A number of burglars' implements were also found by the Police.

THE SUPERINTENDENCE.—The general superintendence of the Academy of Music and Irving Hall on the night of the Russian Ball, was assigned to THEODORE MOSS, Treasurer of Wallack's Theatre. He had a corps of over one hundred men under his direction, and so disposed of them that the thousand and one matters which are, on such occasions, generally everybody's business and specially no one's, were each assigned and attended to. This contributed largely to the entire success characterizing the event, and is the second huge festivity at which the "executive ability" of Treasurer MOSS has been well tested and proven equal to requirements.

MEETING IN REGARD TO CONTRABANDS.—A truly philanthropic meeting is called for Monday evening, NOV. 9, at the Cooper Institute, at 7½ o'clock, by the National Freedmen's Relief Association. Maj.-Gen. GRANT having witnessed the terrible destitution of the contrabands, and having a heart to feel as well as an arm to strike, has directed Chaplain FISKE, Superintendent of Contrabands, to proceed North and represent their condition. A meeting has been called as above, to hear Chaplain FISKE's statement. Rev. Dr. TYNG presides, Maj.-Gen. SICKLES, and Rev. Drs. HITCHCOCK and BELLOWS will speak. We think the meeting must be a success.

FATALLY STABBED.—JOHN MILLER, lately residing at No. 127 Forsyth-street, died yesterday, at the New-York Hospital, from the result of wounds received on Saturday night last. Coroner NAUMANN held an inquest on the body, when the following testimony was elicited: MILLER was passing along the Bowery late on the evening in question, and when nearly opposite the old Bowery Theatre, he was suddenly attacked by some person unknown, severely beaten, and afterward stabbed with a sharp pointed knife in the right side. The Police are engaged in trying to secure the offender. The Coroner adjourned the inquest until to-day, to obtain further evidence.

ALLEGED COUNTERFEITER.—Last evening a young man, giving the name of FRANK HOWE, called at the store of Mr. S. H. W. WARD, No. 367 Broadway, and in payment of purchases offered a counter feit $10 on the Bank of Royalton, Vermont. Mr. WARD, having reason to suspect HOWE of criminal intent, caused his arrest, and he is confined at the Fifth Ward Station-house. Any persons who have been recently swindled by passers of counterfeit money, would do well to call at the Police Station and identify the prisoner, if possible.

VISIT OF ITALIAN OFFICERS TO THE MAYOR.—His Honor Mayor OPDYKE was called upon at the City Hall by the Italian Consul and the following officers of the Italian vessels:

From the Re Galatuono.—Capt. Ulipso Tsolo, Acting Commander Fredico Salrum, Lieuts. Sureno Mana, Fredico Guarime, and Guiseppe Lara.

From the Re d'Italia.—Capt. Duea Impert, Acting Commander Carlo Alberto Bauhia, Lieuts. Guiseppe Dente, Gabriel Martinez Demitin Vaclicio.

ARRIVAL OF A FRENCH GUNBOAT.—The French gunboat Panama, Commander SIRVAL, from Havana direct, arrived at this port yesterday.

LAW REPORTS.

Forfeiture of Vessel Owned in New-Orleans.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

Before Judge Betts.

The United States vs. The Ship Picayune.—This was an information filed to forfeit two-sixteenths of the vessel as being owned by inhabitants of the State of Louisana, under the Act of Congress of July 13, 1861, and the proclamations of the President dated April 15, and August 16, 1861. The vessel was seized under the process. After the return of the process by consent of the District Attorney the two-sixteenths was bonded in the sum of $3,125, its appraised value, by John H. Brooks, the master, with the condition that "claimants have the right to surrender the two-sixteenths in the same condition as when bonded, at any time previous to the forfeiture of the said bond for value."

The master afterwards filed an answer in the cause stating, 1st. That he had claimed and bonded the vessel and she had been delivered to him; 2d. That he denies all the statements in the libel; 3d. That he excepts to the libel that no cause of action is set forth or embraced within it; and 4th. That the libel does not disclose facts sufficient to justify a decree of condemnation.

The case was submitted to the Court on the pleadings.

Held by the Court—That these allegations are inadequate and faulty as matters of pleading, because Brooks does not connect himself in interest with the cause.

That in point of form and regularity the pleading establishes no fact which can in law inure to the defence of the vessel.

That if the paper can be accepted as a general issue to the information, it admits all the averments set forth in that pleading and can rely only on their legal inefficiency.

That the pleadings are doubtless to be regarded within the spirit of the Act of August 6, 1861, and subject to like rules of procedure as in ordinary cases of prize of war. In these cases, the mere charge of the offence in all the specification that need be made in a libel alleging that the property was seized as prize.

That the allegations in this libel clearly place this vessel within a range of facts which make her confiscable by the law. It states: 1. That two-sixteenths of the vessel were the property of Albert Connor and Addison Cammack, of New-Orleans, La., and that it was siezed within the navigable waters of this State. 2. That a state of insurrection and condition of hostility existed and still remains between the inhabitants of the State of Louisiana and the United States; and, 3. That such steps had been taken by the President under existing laws, as to give full action and effect to the condemnatory provisions of the act of July 13, 1863, and to bring the vessel within that act.

That these allegations mark out with adequate distinctness the corpus delicti imputed to the property, and nothing is discerned by the Court disabling it from being executed in the condemnation and forfeiture of the vessel.

Decree of condemnation and forfeiture accordingly.

For the United States ——. For claimant, Messrs. Beebe, Dean & Donohue.

Representations as to Quality do not Amount to Warranty.

SUPREME COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice Allen.

Wm. H. Stiles et al. vs. Wm. A. Brule et al.—In this case the plaintiffs are importers of cloths, and the defendants merchant tailors. Defendants bought certain goods from the plaintiffs, to be used in the manufactory of custom clothing. When purchasing the goods they were represented to be first-class goods of fast colors, and on these representations they were taken. After the goods were made up complaints came in from defendants' customers that the goods were shoddy and the colors faded. Defendants had paid for them in part, but refused to pay the remainder, and this suit is brought to recover the remainder. The Court held that the representations as to quality did not constitute a warranty, even though defendants bought such goods without examination trusting to plaintiffs' good faith, and as there was no allegation of fraud on the part of plaintiffs the jury were directed to bring in a verdict for plaintiffs for $1,857 14.

Mr. Lake for plaintiffs; John H. White for defendants.

The $1,000 Overpayment by Mistake—Another Mistake.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice Robertson.

Edward Morrison and Andrew Soher vs. James S. Sturges and Thomas T. Sturges.—In this case, reported in the TIMES of the 6th, the Court held that inasmuch as the money claimed to have been overpaid by mistake was paid to a clerk of defendants and by him immediately paid out again, and never came into defendants' hands, that plaintiffs could not recover against the defendants as principals, but must proceed against the clerk. Complaint dismissed.

A. R. Dyott for plaintiffs; D. D. Lord for defendants.

Decisions.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

Before Justice Clerke.

Bond vs. Chadsey, Wood vs. Meads, Clarkson vs. Holland, Hoxie vs. Elkins, Kavanagh vs. Bean et al., Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank vs. Wheelock, Warren vs. Leall, Belmont vs. Meade, Moring vs. Schorram, Thorne vs. Breman, Bemheinner vs. Jacobs, Snickner vs. Ward, Hatfield vs. Davis, Renard vs. Fuller. Motions granted.

Roger vs. Tobias, Smith vs. McGuire, Lee vs. Clemey. Motions denied without costs.

Butterworth vs. O'Brien.—Granted allowance of $350.

Cochrane vs. Palding.—Motion granted, with leave to renew on payment of $10 costs.

McDowell vs. Rhodes.—Motion dismissed, with $10 costs.

LEAD—Pig is in limited demand at $9 12½@$9 25 ℔ 100 lbs. Holders are firm.

NAILS—Are scarce and in more demand, including Cut at 5c.@5¼c. and Clinch at 6c.@6½c. ℔ lb.

NAVAL STORES—Continue very quiet at unaltered rates, including Spirits Turpentine at $3 05@$3 10 ℔ gallon; Resin, $4 0@$4 8 ℔ 280 lbs.; Tar, $12 50@$16 ℔ bbl.; City Pitch, $20@$25 ℔ bbl.

OILS—Are in limited demand to-day at uniform prices, including Crude Whale at $1 10@$1 12; do. Sperm at $1 65; Bleached Winter Whale at $1 22½@$1 25; Unbleached Sperm, $1 95@$2 05; Linseed, $1 38@$1 40; No. 1 Lard at 95c.@$1 10; City Red, 75c.@77½c.; Olive at $1 90@$2 ℔ gallon; and $6 25@$6 50, and $4 50@$4 62½ for pints and quarts; Crude Petroleum at 28c.@29c.; Refined do., 55c., free, and 45c.@45½c., in bond ℔ gallon.

OIL CAKE—Has been in moderate demand and steady at $45@$52 ℔ ton; Oil Meal is in request at $2 25 ℔ 100 lbs.

PROVISIONS—Pork has been more active, the speculative inquiry having been animated, partly for future delivery, and prices of Mess have advanced materially. Sales have been made since our last of 7,200 bbls., at $17 75@17 87½ for New Mess here, and for delivery in the current month, as also in December and January on private terms; $16 37½@$16 62½ for Old Mess, $16 90@$17 for Prime Mess, and $11 75@$12 25 for Prime ℔ bbl. Cut Meats continue inactive at 9c.@9¾c. for Hams, and 5¾c.@6½c. for Shoulders, ℔ lb. Bacon is in fair demand at 7¾c.@10c., according to quality, ℔ lb. Sales 250 boxes. Lard is improving to-day. Sales 2,200 tcs. and bbls., at 11¾c.@11¾c. ℔ lb. Beef is unaltered. Sales 150 bbls., at $13 50@$14 75 for Extra Mess, and $11@13 25 for Plain Mess, ℔ bbl. Prime Mess $24@$26 ℔ tierce. Beef Hams $17 50@18 ℔ bbl. Sales 120 bbls. Butter continues quiet at 20c.@24c. for poor to choice Western, and 23c.@28c. for common to prime State, ℔ lb. Cheese is selling slowly at 11c.@13½c. ℔ lb. The Cincinnati Price Current, Nov. 4, says: "The Hog market has not opened fully yet, the weather having been too unsettled, and the last three days far too warm to cure, but there has been a demand for all offered, at $6 net for 200 lbs. average and upward, and $5 75 for 190 lbs. average. The receipts have been light, not much beyond the ordinary Fall receipts for city use, which is to be attributed to the large amount of high corn which farmers have to feed, and the mild weather. There were some 5,800 head sold during the week, at $6; 2,000 of them on the spot, and the remainder to be delivered about the middle of the month. The general impression is, and it seems to us well founded, that, unless gold advances materially, these prices cannot be sustained; and that, as soon as the season fully opens, and the limited existing demand for early meat is supplied, a large decline in prices is inevitable unless gold advances, as we have stated."

RICE—Has been purchased sparingly, including East India, at $7 25@$7 50, ℔ 100 lbs.

SALT—Has been more sought after, at rising prices, including Liverpool Ground, at $1 65@$1 70; do. Fine, $2 35@$2 85 ℔ sack; Turks Island, 51c.@52c. ℔ bushel.

SEEDS—Have been quiet, and quoted heavy generally. Clover, 10c.@10¾c. for old, and 11c.@11¾c. for new, ℔ lb.; Rough Flax, at $3@$3 25; Timothy, at $2 50@$2 65; Linseed, at $3 62½@$3 75, ℔ bushel.

SPELTER—Is inactive at 8¼c.@8¾c. ℔ lb.

SPICES—Have been in slack request since our last at unchanged prices.

SUGARS—Have been in fair demand at very full and rising prices. Sales, since our last, 1,350 hhds., including New-Orleans, at 13c.@13¾c.; Porto Rico, at 12¾c.@13c., and Cuba at 12c.@13c., and 1,740 boxes Havana part at 12¾c.@12¾c. ℔ lb. Refined are in lively request, ranging at from 13¾c.@16¾c. ℔ lb.

TALLOW—Sales 170,000 lbs. at 12c.@12¾c., and 150 pkgs. Grease at 10¾c.@10¾c. ℔ lb.

TEAS—Have been in moderate demand since our last; prices have not varied remarkably.

TIN—Has been in less request, including Straits, at 45¾c.@46c. and Banca at 53c. ℔ lb.

WHISKY—Has been in moderate demand at from 61¾c.@62c. ℔ gallon. Sales 500 bbls.

FREIGHTS—Have been quiet to-day; rates depressed. For Liverpool, the engagements were confined to 500 bbls. Flour at 1s. ℔ bbl.; 7,000 bushels Wheat on private terms; 100 tierces Beef (by steamer) at 7s. ℔ tierce; 50 hhds. Tallow at 15c. ℔ ton. For Havre, 30 tierces Lard and 50 packages Tallow at 50fr. ℔ ton. For Rotterdam, 200 bbls. Flour at 2s. ℔ bbl.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The rumors that the peace which has lately reigned supreme over the Army of the Potomac would soon be broken, do not seem yet to have been verified. Our army has not changed its position, and the rebels still hold the river line from Sulphur Springs to Falmouth, with LEE'S headquarters at Culpepper. Our cavalry remain at the front, and report that the enemy have the north bank of the Rappahannock strongly guarded, evidently intending to dispute our advance. Guerrillas or robbers infest the woods in the vicinity of our camps, making it hazardous for small parties to move beyond the camp lines.

We have reports from Chattanooga to Friday, at which time all was quiet. It is reported that BRAGG'S army has been weakened in front, probably with the design of sending troops to operate against Gen. BURNSIDE.

We have advices from Gen. BURNSIDE'S army at Knoxville up to yesterday. There had been a small fight on the Little Tennessee River, in which our forces proved successful. A large rebel army is reported to be gathering on the "other side of the Tennessee," but what point or precise locality this refers to it is impossible to conjecture. It is evident that the rebels have not yet been able to precipitate their long-threatened assault upon Gen. BURNSIDE.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger states that the next expedition against Texas will probably proceed by way of Brownsville—the vessels now loading with troops being understood as bound for that city. This third effort of the Commanding-General is believed to be the best he has made, and success is regarded as next to certain. The Opelousas route is now fully abandoned—the force left at Brashear being merely for garrison service.

GENERAL NEWS.

From the latest returns of the recent election we are inclined to believe that the Union majority will vary very little from 35,500. A revised calculation shows that in the composition of the State Legislature the Unionists will have two-thirds of the Senate but not of the House. From present indications the Senate will stand Union 22, Democrats, 10; and the Assembly, Union 82, Democrats 46.

The difficulties and lawlessness which for some weeks have held sway in the coal mines of Carbon County, Penn—the fruits of Copperhead teachings—culminated on Thursday night in an outbreak on the part of the rioters which resulted in the killing of four persons. One of the victims was Mr. C. K. SMITH, a coal operator at Yorktown, Carbon County, who was murdered in a brutal manner in the presence of his family.

The St. Louis Union states that Gen. SCHOFIELD has issued an order allowing all boats leaving that port, until further orders, to carry 20 per cent. of their cargoes in private freights. This will be quite a relief to the merchants, who, owing to the demands of Government transportation, have been unable to ship a pound of freight southward for the past six weeks.

The Court of General Sessions met yesterday, Judge MCCUNN presiding, and adjourned without transacting any business, to Monday next, at 11 A. M. There was not a quorum of Grand Jurors present, and the Court issued an order for a new panel to be summoned for Monday.

The price of Gold was higher early in the day yesterday, but fell back to 147¼ in the afternoon. Money was active, but the supply easier from lenders. Stocks were up, as compared with Thursday.

Flour and Wheat opened at firmer prices, with a fair inquiry, yesterday, but were heavy and drooping toward the close. A good demand prevailed for Corn and Oats, at advanced rates. The principal movements in Provisions were in Mess Pork, which was sold freely, in part for future delivery, at higher prices, speculators having been the principal buyers. In the Grocery line, Sugars alone were active. Cotton was held with more firmness, with a moderate business reported. Whisky was quiet, but steady. Tallow was more sought after, and was advancing. Petroleum attracted less attention. Fish and Wool were in good request. Freights were very quiet.

FRANCO-REBEL RAMS.—Our Paris correspondent gives some information concerning the rams that are being built in French ports for that great sea-king the Emperor of China, (alias JEFF. DAVIS) and he makes the positive statement, which we doubt not is based upon the best authority, that "the sailing of these ships will be stopped by the French Government." This last statement is directly opposed to the assertions of English journals on the subject; but we usually find that the statements made in the London journals concerning French policy toward this country are utterly unreliable.

Our correspondent says that the rebels are getting six of these vessels built in France, two of them at Nantes, and the four contracted for by M. ARMAN are being built, we believe, at Bordeaux. As it is LAIRD, a member of the English Parliament, (or "LAIRD'S sons") who has been so conspicuous in building rebel rams on the Mersey, so it is ARMAN, a member of the French Legislative corps, who is busy building them on the Garonne. Four of them are to be finished next month and the remaining two in the Spring. We sincerely hope that the statement of our correspondent will be verified that the French Government will stop the sailing of these vessels in the rebel service, as the English Government has stopped the sailing of LAIRD'S rams. It is impossible for this Government or people to keep on terms of amity with a nation which builds and equips vessels to destroy our commerce and attack our cities.

Fill Up the Ranks.

The people have pronounced grandly for breaking down the rebellion by war. Now let them see to it that the Government has the means wherewith to do it. Mere voting, without corresponding action, would be hardly less than a mockery. If VALLANDIGHAM and WOODWARD and SEYMOUR had been elected, there might have been some consistency in hesitating to respond to the call of the President for more men. Such results might have been plausibly held out as such a condemnation of the war policy of the Administration, as to make any further increase of the army inexpedient. But the people having sanctioned the policy, are bound to aid in its consummation. The same ardor which they have exhibited at the polls, they should now apply to the raising of volunteers. If this be done, the supply of the three hundred thousand called for by the President will be soon realised, and the breaking down of the rebellion will be an object not simply successfully voted for, but successfully fought for—not merely an accepted policy, but an accomplished fact.

It is true that the President has the last resort of a compulsory draft to fall back upon, if the volunteer force he has summoned does not present itself. No one who knows him doubts that he will use that resort, if need be, and with all the vigor necessary to give him every man he wants. It concerns the people more than it does him that the quotas should be raised by volunteering, rather than by draft. It would be a scandal that the people should be compelled by law to do what they, of their own accord, have pronounced just and necessary. The whole moral force of the late elections will be lost, and, in fact, converted into a flagrant shame, if they are to be followed by a compelling of men to go forth and carry out with bullets what they had declared for with ballots.

Time, too, as well as consistency, demands the supply of the soldiers by volunteering. Two months are now in reserve for testing what the people will do through this method. If they are suffered to pass away without filling up the quotas voluntarily, other months must be expended in securing the object through the troublesome and tedious process of the draft. The new soldiers will hardly be ready for the field before the end of the Spring, and at the very time when large numbers of the three years' troops will be returning home on account of the expiration of their terms of service. What is especially needed is that the new accession of three hundred thousand should be made to the army before its present strength is materially reduced, so that a blow may be struck with the very maximum of force. Such a blow, rightly directed, would, in all probability, be a fatal one to the rebellion. Vigorous movements for two months, with an army far outnumbering any force the rebels could oppose to it, would tell with immeasurably greater effect than any movements could in two years, when the armies differ little in magnitude, as is now the case. Give GRANT fifty thousand more men, and he would very quickly make himself master of every State west of the Savannah River. Increase MEADE'S present army by fifty thousand, and he might sweep on to Richmond as resistlessly as the march of fate. The quickest, surest mode of finishing the rebellion is to crush it by an overwhelming superiority of numbers. But to do this, it is necessary that the call of the President should be responded to at the earliest possible day, while the three years' soldiers are all still in service.

New-York, we trust, will promptly meet this obligation. Gov. SEYMOUR is pledged by the language of his proclamation, issued before election, to push forward the work of volunteering with his utmost energy. With great emphasis, he invoked the State officials and the people to "give every assistance in their power to promote enlistments into our armies," and, of course, he holds himself bound to give his own "assistance" to the full extent of his own "power." If he carries this engagement out in good faith, as we trust he will, and pushes well-devised plans systematically and zealously, the municipalities of the State will all, doubtless, cooperate, and the people themselves, we are confident, will rally, and fill up the quota, large as it is, to the last man, before the volunteering period runs out. There certainly is live patriotism enough in the State of New-York to effect this. It needs simply to be properly evoked and directed. But no time should be lost. The few available weeks are fast passing, and they must be seized at once, or no sufficient opportunity will be left. Every man in public position has a duty to perform in this matter; let it be discharged forthwith.

We earnestly hope that no party spirit will show itself in this movement. The election is decided. There is no further occasion for continuing strife. It being determined by the people of New-York that the war policy is the right policy, every man who has a particle of State pride or public spirit of any kind, will concern himself in keeping the State practically faithful to the position it has assumed. We go for burying all resentments and jealousies, and working with Gov. SEYMOUR, and all other officials of whatever party who will work, in order that the call of the President may be answered in a manner worthy of the great Empire State. An example should be set here that should stimulate every loyal State to come square up to the duty of the day. One great, resolute effort is all that is needed. If we can only have the appropriate action now, the rebellion will soon be pushed to the wall, beyond all possibility of relief; and untold blood and treasure will be saved, which otherwise will surely be exacted from us. Humanity, economy, consistency, pride, wisdom, patriotism, all demand the speediest mustering of our full quota of volunteers under the glorious old flag. If this duty is fitly performed by the loyal States, that flag will ere long wave over the last ditch of the rebellion.

Our Active Forces and Their Prospects.

The points and forces of action, at the present moment, are the army of Gen. GRANT, with its three great columns, under Gens. BURNSIDE, THOMAS and SHERMAN, at KNOXVILLE, Chattanooga and Tuscumbia—the army of Gen. MEADE, which is still on this side of the Rappahannock, and the minor armies of Gens. GILLMORE and BANKS, the former of which is pounding away at the rebel works in Charleston Harbor, and the other of which is engaged in operations in Western Louisiana, whose nature and object are not very easily comprehended by a mere observer. Viewed as a whole, there is thus much greater simplicity in the operations upon the theatre of war than there has been at previous times, and no one, either here or abroad, need have any difficulty in intelligently of ollowing up the campaigns of the various Generals. If there be action during the month in Virginia, it will most likely be Gen. MEADE who will take the initiative; if there be action in Tennessee, it will most likely be the rebels who will take the initiative. At Charleston, all that the rebels can do is to defend themselves; in Louisiana and Texas, all that the rebels can do is to fall back, and still farther back, as Gen. BANKS advances—if he advance.

We shall not be surprised if, before the close of the month, or, indeed, at any moment, we hear of active work both in Virginia and in Tennessee. Gen. MEADE desires a battle with LEE—of that there is no doubt; but under the circumstances, it is easier to desire than to compel. LEE'S army, we suppose, is still in the triangle formed by the two rivers Rappahannock and Rapidan and the Blue Ridge Mountain; and his facilities for falling back either to Richmond or Gordonsville are as great as are our difficulties of chasing him up to either of these points. As we have shown before, had Gen. MEADE not the primary duty of defending Washington on his hands—were it not in his orders that he must, at all events, prevent the rebel army from getting between his lines and the Capital—his work would be comparatively simple, and he could take a sharp turn upon the rebels that would quickly force them to accept the issue of battle. But, as it is now, he is compelled in great measure to wait upon the movements of LEE, and to guide his own action by that of his adversary. Even with the difficulties in the way, however, there have been indications lately that MEADE would enter upon an offensive campaign during the brief season that is now left him for campaigning before the advent of impracticable weather. The popular and official impatience with Gen. MEADE, we consider very wild and absurd. On the one hand, he must obey the orders sent him from Washington, and on the other, if he would be successful, he must operate against the enemy on purely military principles. When the two courses are incompatible, he must do the best he can. And there is no doubt whatever that this is what he is doing. If there be any truth in the never-ending assertions of the telegraph that another corps of LEE'S army beside LONGSTREET'S has been sent west to operate in Tennessee, we do not doubt that MEADE will either soon be in Richmond or will destroy what remains of the rebel army in Virginia. He is feeling his way to one of these objects now.

The attack on Gen. BURNSIDE, or the attempt to flank Gen. THOMAS, both of which movements have been anticipated for at least a month, have not yet come off. But the rebel Press is getting more and more anxious for them; and the late speeches of JEFF. DAVIS in the West, show that the official and military anxiety is as great as the popular. One of these things the rebels must accomplish soon, or they will suffer fearfully this Winter. But BRAGG is environed with difficulties as well as MEADE. If he move his army north to attempt either one of these objects, he runs a fearful peril; for Gen. SHERMAN'S army, which is now advancing eastward along the line of the Tennessee, could be dispatched southward to Atlanta, on the route followed by Gen. ROSECRANS, and in that case BRAGG'S army would be enveloped, and Gen. GRANT would have a chance to win a greater victory and take a greater number of prisoners than fell to his fortune at Vicksburgh.

The City Judiciary Election—Its Hopeless and Hopeful Aspects.

If MCCUNN had been defeated on Tuesday, owing to the accidental division of the Democratic forces, a large portion of the public would have relapsed into the comfortable conclusion that an elective Judiciary is not so bad after all, and that if the "respectable people would only work," the elevation of an unfit candidate to the Bench could always be rendered impossible. In fact, one of our cotemporaries assured us, only two days ago, that if we have bad Judges, it is chargeable rather to the voters than to the system under which the voters work, and that if those who are most interested in keeping the Bench pure would only go to the polls, all would be well. The reelection of Judge BOSWORTH would have confirmed us in the delusion, and we should have gone on as before, hoping that "something would turn up," and that somehow or other, Providence would take care of our institutions.

Nothing could have happened better calculated to rid us of this hallucination than the election of Tuesday. It was a crucial test of the relative strength of the mob and of the decent citizens. MCCUNN was probably the worst man that ever offered himself as a candidate for a judgeship in any civilized country. He has absolutely nothing in his favor. He has no social standing and no legal standing. His general knowledge is meagre, and so is his knowledge of law. He was compelled to leave the army for misbehavior at a time when the army was not very remarkable for good behavior. He has made himself, within the last six months, the champion of a mob which rose against property in this very City, and whose atrocities make the Parisian "Scenes of the Terrible" seem mild-mannered and humane. He prostrated the judicial office which he held for their help and deliverance from the hands of justice. All respectable Democrats united with all respectable Republicans in denouncing him. He was presented to the public for election by a band of political adventurers, notorious for their jobbery and corruption. His followers and supporters were almost exclusively the most ignorant and degraded of the population. Yet he has been elected, and those who voted for him have done so with the morbid desire of having a Judge on the bench to interpose the power of his office between criminals and traitors and the law and the Government.

The "respectable classes" could not have had, and never will have, a better opportunity than this of displaying their strength and patriotism. They now know, if they did not know it before, that in a mere conflict of numbers at the polls, the rascals in this City are pretty sure to get the better of them; and they know, also, that our elective Judiciary is, in a city like New-York, the most terrible weapon that was ever put into the hands of the enemies of order, or of property, or of democracy.

We are sorry, and sincerely sorry, that MCCUNN is elected, because we believe that his success will embolden the "dangerous classes," and give them increased confidence in their power; and we are sure that his appearance on the Bench will seriously diminish popular respect for the law and for those who administer it—a sentiment which has probably done more for the liberty and progress of our race than all other influences put together. But inasmuch as we believe that his defeat would simply have delayed a reform which will surely be found before very long absolutely necessary to save society itself from dissolution, we are by no means disheartened by his success. There could not be a stronger argument against our present system of appointing our Judges than the fact that he has become a Judge in spite of all that the property and intelligence of the City could do to prevent it. We are not without hopes that the impression which this will make on the public mind will be sufficiently strong to bring about, ere long, an amendment to the Constitution that will render, not all abuses, but all abuses as gross as this, impossible. If not, we predict confidently that we shall, inside the next ten years, see worse people on the Bench than even MCCUNN. The class that has elected him is by no means remarkable either for shame or moderation, and having succeeded in putting him in the Superior Court, the next step will be to select their Judges from a wider field than the Bar. They will probably, if they find us sufficiently patient and supine, treat us eventually to a Court composed exclusively of the same class of persons as now adorn the Boards of Aldermen and Common Councilmen, and instead of precedents and principles, we should have doled out to us from the Bench the rough and pungent wisdom of the pot-house and the prize-ring.

Musical.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—FLOTOW'S "Martha," last evening, was excellently rendered by Mr. MARETZEK'S company. Miss KELLOGG was in admirable voice, and the remaining artists of the quartette supported her to the best advantage. The house was unusually full and brilliant, attracted partly by the opera and partly by the decorations "used at the Russian Ball." These latter are a curiosity. They should be seen. To-day is the opportunity, at the matinée. The entire opera of "Lucia" will be given, and the second act of "Martha."

IRVING HALL.—Mr. THEODORE THOMAS will give his third grand matinée, to-day, at this establishment. The programme is unusually interesting.

BROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Mr. L. M. GOTTSCHALK will give a grand concert here this evening, assisted by Mlle. Cordier, Mr. Wm. Castle, Mr. S. C. Campbell, Mr. Harry Sanderson, Mr. George W. Warren, Signor Patti and Mr. S. C. Behrens.

PROMENADE CONCERT.—The Seventy-first regiment, N. Y. S. N. G., intend giving a series of promenade concerts every alternate Saturday during the coming season at Irving Hall. The first concert will take place this evening. DODWORTH'S full band will perform on each occasion, an announcement which, in conjunction with the popularity of the regiment itself, will, we are sure, meet the approbation and patronage of all lovers of good music.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—JOHN MOFFAT died yesterday at his residence in this City, No. 32 East Seventeenth-street. He was seventy years of age. Mr. MOFFAT was the inventor of "Moffatt's Life Pills" and the "Phœnix Bitters," which became of world-wide popularity, and from the sale of which he accumulated over one and a half million dollars. He retired from business, but about a year since resumed it. Mr. MOFFAT was personally well known, and much respected.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Thursday, Nov. 5.

Sailed, Dutch bark Marie Elizabeth, for Hong Kong, carrying $335,000 in treasure.

The Constitutional Convention for Nevada Territory, organized at Carson City, has chosen the California Constitution for the basis, and apportioned it among the appropriate Committees. The indications are that there will be a short session, followed by an early election of members of the Legislature, with a view of choosing United States Senators to present a Constitution to Congress at the ensuing session, and ask for the admission of the State of Washoe into the Union.

There has been a severe snow storm in Washoe, checking emigration and the "Reese" excitement, which has been the rage for months past.

Execution of a Murderer.

BOSTON, Friday, Nov. 6.

JAMES CALENDAR, convicted of the murder of Mrs. GEORGE JONES and her two children, in Otis, Mass., was hung to-day at the Berkshire County Jail. The circumstances attending the murder were of the most atrocious description. Previous to the execution CALENDAR made some remarks, saying that his father got him into the scrape and that he murdered the mother and the children.

His father was present and also the husband and brother of Mrs. JONES.

The Sale of Five-Twenties.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Nov. 6.

The Subscription Agent reports the sale of one million eight hundred and fifty-eight thousand Five-twenties on Friday.

The deliveries of Bonds are made in moderate amounts at the time of subscription.

Illinois Election.

CHICAGO, Friday, Nov. 6.

The Chicago Tribune of to-day publishes returns from 28 counties, which, compared with the majorities of the same counties last year, show the Union gain to be 15,079.

The Fifth New-Hampshire Regiment.

BOSTON, Friday, Nov. 6.

The veteran Fifth New-Hampshire regiment, which came home in August last to recruit its thinned ranks, embarked to-day from Long Island in the steamers Karnac and City of Bath to rejoin the Army of the Potomac.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Escape of Two Prisoners from Richmond—Sufferings of the Captives.

FORTRESS MONROE, Thursday, Nov. 5.

The mail-boat Thomas A. Morgan, from Yorktown, brought down two officers, Maj. HOUSTON and Lieut. D. VON WEITZEIN, who had made their escape from Richmond.

The Major was captured last July in North Carolina, and imprisoned with the Lieutenant in the Libby Prison. They made their escape a week ago last Sunday, by disguising themselves as rebels.

They state that the Federal soldiers are dying of starvation, and were not allowed enough food in a week to support them a day. The Major demanded food and work, representing himself as a tailor; and, being given old uniforms to mend, he furnished himself and his friend with rebel suits, in which they left the prison, and succeeded in getting to the Chickahominy. After being fired upon by cavalry sent in pursuit of them they crossed the river, and after various hardships and three days' starvation reached our pickets on their hands and knees.

The Missouri and Illinois Elections.

ST. LOUIS, Friday, Nov. 6.

Dispatches from Jefferson City say the Conservatives there admit that their majority on the home ticket will be too small to avail anything, while the radicals hope to carry the State by a small majority, without the aid of the soldiers' vote. This is mainly conjecture, as the returns are insufficient to base a definate statement upon.

Returns from Illinois continue to show large Union gains.

Steamer Collision.

BALTIMORE, Friday, Nov. 6.

Last night at about 11½ o'clock, in the Chesapeake Bay, off the mouth of the Potomac, the steamer Louisiana, of Baltimore, from Fortress Monroe, collided with a three-masted propeller, supposed to be the Curlew, of New-York, from Baltimore.

The Louisiana was badly damaged and one of her boilers was crushed. Her passengers were transferred to the steamer Escort and reached here after ten hours detention. The Curlew is supposed to have sunk, as she quickly disappeared. It was blowing a gale at the time.

New-York State Election.

BUFFALO, Friday, Nov. 6.

Returns from Chatauque County are complete, except the town of Hamilton, and give a Union majority of 4,016.

Letter from Gen. Rosecrans on His Removal.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says the following is an extract from a strictly private letter received in Washington from Gen. ROSECRANS to-day; I have no right to make it public, but I venture to take the responsibility:

"As to my removal from the command of the Army of the Cumberland, I have only to say that I pray God that the country may be as well and better served by another. As for the infamous lies which are put forth through the Press to blast my reputation, such as disabling mental disease, the use of opium, disobedience of orders, in not advancing when ordered, in waiting for reinforcements, etc., etc., if I thought they came from our Government I would despair of a nation headed by such a Government. That the people will accept them, or that God will prosper their authors I do not believe. Personally, I commend myself to the just and merciful One, who knows what is best for me."

Morton's Gold Pens are now sold at the same prices as before the commencement of the war; this is entirely owing to the Manufacturer's improvements in machinery, his present large Retail Business and Cash-in-Advance System; for, until he commenced advertising, his business was done on Credit and strictly with the Trade.

The Morton Gold Pens are the only ones sold at old prices, as the makers of all other gold pens charge the Premium on the Gold, Government Tax, &c.; but Morton has in no case changed his prices, Wholesale or Retail.

Of the great numbers sent by mail to all parts of the world during the past few years, not one in a thousand has failed to reach its destination in safety; showing that the Morton Gold Pen can be obtained by any one, in every part of the world, at the same price, postage only excepted.

Reader, you can have an enduring, always ready, and reliable Gold Pen, exactly adapted to your hand and style of writing, which will do your writing vastly cheaper than Steel Pens; and at the present almost universal High-Pressure Price of everything, you can have a Morton Gold Pen cheaper, in proportion to the labor spent upon it and material used, than any other Gold Pen in the World. If you want one call on A. MORTON, No. 25 Maiden-lane, or inclose stamp for circular.

Gold Pens, Manufactured by E. S. Johnson & CO. are the best pens, for the least amount of money, of any firm in the world, any statement of any other manufacturer to the contrary notwithstanding. AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY.

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 126th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. VON EISENBERG has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. VON EISENBERG is as skillful as it is successful; it is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. VON EISENBERG, is now clear and good; indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. 245 7th-st., New-York.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 8.

I have been suffering for years past from a severe Catarrh, with a great heaviness over my eyes, with a severe depression, great uneasiness, and pain in my head, great difficulty in breathing, and a continual accumulation in my nostrils, which gave me restless nights for several years. I have consulted several physicians, who pronounced me to be consumptive. What I suffered for so long a time is indescribable. My system was entirely disarranged and greatly debilitated. I not only felt weak, but I had a cloud continually before my eyes, and my ears were so affected that I was threatened with a total loss of hearing. I must say, I think, I was guided by Providence to come to Dr Von Eisenberg, who not only cured me of my Catarrh by removing an astonishing quantity of disagreeable matter from my head, but he restored me to perfect health, a blessing I have not enjoyed for many years. Now I enjoy a good night's rest, and pursue my business with comfort. I must acknowledge that Dr. Von Eisenberg's mild and scientific treatment for Catarrh deserves the highest commendation, as the principle which directs his system of curing Catarrh is such as to render success certain.

JAMES FURLONG, No. 550 2d-av.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 28 South-st.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG'S unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

HUGH GILLON,
No. 76 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers, from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

IT IS A DYE.
IT IS A DYE.

In the year 1845 Mr. Mathews first produced the VENETIAN HAIR DYE. Since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is only FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye in those usually sold for $1.

The VENETIAN DYE is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.

The VENETIAN DYE works with rapidity and certainty, the hair requiring no preparation whatever.

The VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired—one that will not fade, crock, or wash out—one that is as permanent as the hair itself. For sale by all druggists.

EXTRAORDINARY CURES OF CONSUMPTION.

Dr. J. H. Schenck, proprietor of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, more than thirty years ago, was supposed to be in a dying condition, his disease being Pulmonary Consumption, which had proceeded, as his friends and physicians believed, to the very last stage. No one thought it possible that he could live two months, when he began to use the Syrup which now bears his name. The result was most astonishing. He speedily recovered his health; and now, after the lapse of a quarter of a century, his constitution appears to be as sound as if he had never experienced a day's sickness in his life. He is not only healthy, but corpulent, weighing considerably more than two hundred pounds. He has since prescribed the same medicine to thousands of consumptive patients, and much the greater number of them have recovered in like manner. Dr. S. having observed that Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often the concomitants of pulmonary disease, and that they not unfrequently produce it, has invented two other medicines adapted to cases in which Consumption is complicated with disorder of the stomach or liver. These auxiliary remedies are the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills; the first of which strengthens the constitution of the patient, and greatly improves the power of digestion, and the latter removes all obstructions from the liver, and restores it to a state of healthy activity. Dr. Schenck can only be found at his rooms, No. 32 Bond-st., New-York, every Tuesday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., for consultation and advice, but his medicines can be had there at all times. NEW DRUG AND CHEMICAL WAREHOUSE,
NO. 594 BROADWAY.

TAYLOR'S ELIXIR OF BARK AND IRON.—This elegant stomachic Elixir is prepared from the best Calisaya Cinchona Bark, and is probably the best combination of Cinchona and Iron yet devised. Each dessertspoonful holds in solution a grain of pyrophosphate of Iron, together with the soluble portion of sixteen grains of the best yellow (Calisaya) Bark, combined with a number of choice aromatics. It has been found very beneficial in Dyspepsia, and in that languor and prostration of the system which frequently succeed acute disease. It increases the appetite, invigorates the powers of digestion, is very acceptable to the stomach, and may be advantageously used in all cases where a tonic influence is required. 50 cents per bottle.

Prepared solely by TAYLOR, Apothecary,
No. 1,015 Chesnut-st., Philadelphia.

Sold at HELMBOLD'S Drug and Chemical Warehouse, No. 594 Broadway, New-York.

JUST PUBLISHED:
STRANGE STORIES OF A DETECTIVE;
OR,
CURIOSITIES OF CRIME.
BY A RETIRED MEMBER OF THE DETECTIVE POLICE.
PRICE 50 CENTS.

There is something exceedingly fascinating in stories like these. Beyond the interest engendered by the nature of the narrative, the reader gets to sympathize in the pursuit of the criminal, and watches with relish the closing of the net around the object of the officer's pursuit. Some of these contests of crime with the agents of justice are exceedingly amusing—"The Ebony Box," for instance, where sturdy honesty and a keen perception of character are engaged against a set of rascals, to the discomfiture of the latter. JEAN INGELOW'S POEMS.

In one vol., 16mo, extra cloth, gilt. Price One Dollar.

The "New English Poet" is now first presented to American readers. her volume having passed to a third edition in England, and received the heartiest commendation of the literary journals.

"The new name undoubtedly belongs to a new poet. * * Here is the unmistakable touch and breath of freshness; the presence of Genius which cannot easily be defined: the power to fill common earthly things with heavenly fire; a power to gladden wisely and to sadden nobly; to shake the heart, and bring moist tears into the eyes, through which the spirit may catch its loftiest flight."—London Athenæum.

"Miss Ingelow's volume can scarcely fail to win for itself a warm welcome from all lovers of true poetry, and warrants us in anticipating that she will take a permanent place among English poets."—London Spectator.

"It is not too much to call it a precious little volume. The tenderest nature seems wedded to the sweetest harmony. The auguries of critics have often proved mistakes, when they have prophesied from the promise of some volume the rise of a new genius; but we are inclined to think this volume cannot disappoint."—London Eclectic.

"The first thing which strikes the reader of these poems is their free, ringing music—a music which wells up only from the spirit that has drunk in lovingly all natural melodies."—Victoria Magazine.

"Under the simplest title which could have been chosen, we find here some of the most exquisite verses which could have been written."—London Critic.

"To all who take pleasure in true and tender feeling, expressed in musical verse—in poetry which displays a fine appreciation of the larger issues of existence, and in pictures which show unusually delicate observation of nature—Miss Ingelow's volume may be cordially recommended."—London Daily News.

HEAVEN OUR HOME.
WE HAVE NO SAVIOR BUT JESUS
AND NO HOME BUT HEAVEN.

In a note to the English edition, from which this is reprinted, the author states, "that, within the space of little more than one week, the whole of the first edition of 'Heaven Our Home' was sold. Within a few months more, sixty successive editions have been called for. He trusts that this will be taken as an evidence that the views which he has presented of our future home have created some interest in the minds of the reading public."

A Social Heaven, where scattered families and friends meet at last in perfect recognition, intercourse, fellowship and bliss, is the leading idea of the book, and it displays an originality of conception, a flow of language, and a closeness of reasoning rarely found in religious publications.

In our own country, where there is at the present time so much mourning and affliction, this book will be sought for and read with avidity.

SUPERIOR TO "ADAM BEDE."

BROKEN COLUMNS.
A NOVEL.
One volume, 12mo. Price, $1 50.

PETER BAYNE, the Essayist, says of it:

"I have complied with your request and read 'Broken Columns' carefully through. I do not hesitate to pronounce it, in my judgment, superior to 'Adam Bede.' The plot is admirable, and the execution is a singular nearness to perfection. I am confident, where it is read and known, it will have an extensive sale."

The Cincinnati Gazette says:

"'Broken Columns' is a production of extraordinary power, and its absorbing, harrowing, but happily-ending plot is worked out with surpassing skill. The interest of the work is intense."

The New-York Examiner says:

"We rejoice to meet with a book like 'Broken Columns,' which tends to redeem 'light literature' from the opprobrium is too often merits."

The London (C. W.) Free Press says:

"There is a simplicity about it which at once pleases, the characters being those of every-day life, those whom we see passing before us and who live and have their being in every section of the universe."

PETER CARRADINE; OR THE
MARTINDALE PASTORAL.
By CAROLINE CHESEBRO.
1 vol., 12mo. Price, $1 50.

Harper's Magazine says:

"Without attempting to give an analysis of the story and characters, we must content ourselves by saying that the cultivated reader will consider 'Peter Carradine' the best American novel which has been written for years."

The New-York Tribune says:

"Peter Carradine is a novel of genuine power, profound in its conceptions of character, sending deep glances into the interior of the heart, evincing a noble sincerity of purpose, and clothed in the terse, idiomatic, vigorous diction of which the writer always shows a rare command."

The Worcester Palladium says:

"It is a high merit of 'Peter Carradine' that all its characters are so apparently natural and unartificial that they seem to be of the world which one meets with every day."

A CARD TO THOSE WHO PUT THEIR TRUST IN DOGS.

Last week the house of Abram Lott, Esq., Brooklyn; the house of C. C. Goodhue, Staten Island, and the house of W. R. Powell, Elizabeth, N. J., were broken open by burglars. In each case there were from one to three dogs about the premises, which gave no alarm; but the Burglar Alarm Telegraph, which was never known to fail, did in each case give the alarm, thus saving the premises from being robbed. Also, the house of Mr. Strong, who lives on Flushing Bay, L. I., was robbed, with five dogs about the premises for protection, but having no Burglar Alarm Telegraph, he lost his pantaloons and pocket-money from his bedside, and other valuables about the house.

MEDICAL.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

Sir JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS!

Prepared from a Prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well-known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever, and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the constitution. To married ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, mercury, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

For full particulars get a pamphlet, free, of the agent, N. B.—1 and 2 postage stamps inclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle containing over 50 pills, by return mail. Sold by all druggists.

JOB MOSES, No. 27 Cortlandt-st., New-York, Sole United States Agent.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by Dr. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 25 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st., the only place. Call, send for a circular, or write.

SURE CURE—BY DR. POWERS. SUCCESSfully consulted with Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Venetiens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa, gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvellous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, thereby speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world, guaranteed a perfect cure, or no charge, in from one to three days. Established 1834. Those who have used their powers are never without. Send for a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read Dr. Powers' circular. Postage free, on receipt of 3 stamp. Cures warranted.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH restored in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and impediments to marriage generally. Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st., New-York.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND those about to be married.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 16th edition of the valuable book, entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale by H. RICHARDSON, at No. 1 Vesey-st. (Astor House) and No. 18 Ann-st.; FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE—Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs, in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequence upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent, free of postage, to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH restored in four weeks by Dr. RICORD'S ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent will restore manhood to the most shattered constitution, whether arising from excesses, sole abuse, the effects of climate or natural causes. The time required to cure the most inveterate cases is four weeks. Failure is impossible. Dr. Ricord's Essence of Life is sold in cases with instructions for use, for $3, or our quantities in one for $5. Sent carefully packed on receipt of remittance by a secredited agent.

DR. WARD'S MAGICAL INVIGORATORS, IN the form of Pills, will, in fifteen minutes after being taken, make the most delicate female or nature's bud never been retarded or debilitated. To the unmarried or single, in every physical exigency, this unrivaled medicine is earnestly recommended as a complete restorative of the nervous system where manhood has been impaired. Procured of Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st. Call or send for circulars.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly ailments in cases of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. Ess Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr POWERS, 50 Lispenard-st., New-York.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY LADY.—DR. WARD'S Great Female Benefactor or Golden Regulating Pills. Infallible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and they will never disappoint the anxious patient. Office No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, where Dr. WARD can be consulted, confidentially, day and evening.

ADVICE TO LADIES.—IN ALL CASES where infallible medicines are desired, or mode of treatment that never fails, call upon Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of diseases of Women, author of "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion," who treats female complaints exclusively. Office 129 Liberty-st.

DR. JOHNSON, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY be consulted with confidence on private diseases. Thirty years in one specialty enables him to guarantee speedy and permanent cures. N. B.—Those who may have been misled by quack advertisements, nostrums, &c., can call on Dr. J., with the certainty of a cure.

SUFFERERS FROM SELF-ABUSE, FEmale weakness, spermatorrhœa, and all sexual diseases can be cured without paying fees to anybody, by sending their address on a post-paid envelope to Box No. 1,647, Boston, Mass.

HUNDREDS ARE RUINED BEYOND redemption in this life by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first; he has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has cured more than fifty thousand cases. His remedies are mild, and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Dr. HUNTER is in constant attendance from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night, at his old office, No. 3 Division-st. Charges moderate and a cure guaranteed. Separate rooms, so that the patient sees no one but the Doctor himself. His wonderful medical discovery cures certain diseases, when all regular treatment, and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, and possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. It is $1 a vial, with a medical work on Human Frailty, Nervous Debility, Early Indiscretion, and consultation gratis.

HOMEOPATHIC MEDICINES.

DR. HUMPHREYS, AUTHOR OF HUMPHREYS' Homeopathic Specifics, is daily consulted at his office and rooms, No. 562 Broadway, personally and by letter, for all diseases of the human system.

PIQUE.
A TALE OF THE ENGLISH ARISTOCRACY.
An able Boston critic says: "We congratulate our readers in having this excellent English novel, not properly known here, presented to them in an American dress. Without having any of the horrors of Miss Braddon, or the vignette photography of Mr. Anthony Trollope, it is a truly delightful combination of the romance and reality of high—very high—life in England."
The New-York World in a very flattering notice says: "The key note to this pleasant social novel is the tendency to concealment in the feminine mind, and perplexities into which it leads the heroine in her relations with her affiance, and afterward husband—Lord Abresford. The book may be regarded as a sort of study of the heart and brain of an affectionate, well-meaning, but rather hasty young lady, who needs the rather painful experiences through which she passes to make her what she should be. The characters are drawn with a painstaking hand and the scenes of high life through which most of them move are amusing and often piquant. The ladies, especially the unmarried ones, will do well to read 'Pique' and profit by the experiences of Lady Abresford."
One thick 12mo. vol. Price $1 50.
The first edition was eagerly snatched up; the second is ready this morning.
All the Broadway booksellers retail it. Oliver S. Felt, John Bradburn, C. T. Evans, Sheldon & Co., Appleton & Co., Dexter, Hamilton & Co., Sinclair Tousey wholesale it.

DEAFNESS
NOISES IN THE HEAD,
Diseases of the Eye, Ear & Throat,
CATARRH CURED
BY
DR. VON EISENBERG,
AT HIS CONSULTING ROOMS,

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 Forsyth-st., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.
Dr. Von Eisenberg:
DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most sceptical.
I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.
Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.
The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.
The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.
My hearing is perfect to this day.
I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing or total deafness, to consult you immediately as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction, causes me to pity them.
This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be puerile; but as a measure of precaution to induce all to call on you at once without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.
I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.
I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.
This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.
I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

NOTICE.

To the Stockholders of the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company:

The increasing business of the Company and anticipated connections with other Railroads render it expedient forthwith to extend the double track from its present terminus at Williams Bridge to Chatham Four Corners, and to complete the road from that place through to Albany.

For the purpose of meeting the necessary outlays attending such constructions, and to defray the expenses incident to the extensions of the City Railroad already authorized, the Board of Directors have resolved that it is expedient to increase the Capital Stock to such amount, not exceeding the limitation of the Charters, as may be sanctioned by the requisite vote of the Stockholders, and to issue the increased stock from time to time as may be required for the purposes of completing such double track and extensions and procuring the necessary additional rolling stock.

The amount of the Capital Stock, as limited by the charter and amendatory acts, and including both the Common and Preferred Stock, is eight millions of dollars, of which two millions one hundred and thirty-nine thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars remained unissued.

The Board of Directors propose that the Capital Stock be increased to its full amount.

A meeting of the Stockholders for the purpose of acting upon such resolution of the Board of Directors and of concurring in the increase of the Capital Stock to the full amount, authorized by the Charter and the several acts of the Legislature, amendatory thereof, will be held at the Office of the Company, at the corner of 26th-st. and 4th-av., on TUESDAY, the first day of December next, at 12 o'clock noon of that day.

For the purpose of ascertaining the Stockholders who shall be entitled to vote at such meeting, the Books of Transfer will be closed, as required by law, on Saturday, the 7th day of November inst., the day of the first publication of this notice.

The Books will be open on Tuesday, the 10th day of November inst.

Dated, New-York, Nov. 6, 1863.

By order of the Board of Directors,
C. VANDERBILT, President.
WM. H. RAMSON, Secretary.

IODINE.

IODINE WATER:
A SOLUTION OF PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

PREPARED ONLY BY
DR. H. ANDERS & CO.,
Physicians and Chemists,
NO. 423 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK.

IT ACTS UPON THE HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS, AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM.

The unparalleled success in private practice and the indorsement of

HIGH MEDICAL AUTHORITY,

enable us to recommend

IODINE WATER

for the cure of Scrofula in all forms, Consumption, Cancer, Bronchitis, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases; Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Female Weaknesses, Dyspepsia, Syphilis, Mercurial Disease, etc.

AS A TONIC,

its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and exciting the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine Water. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Iodine Water is put up with full directions around each bottle, that it may be used as a family medicine as well as by the practitioner.

Physicians may rely upon the uniform strength of this solution, as containing ¼ grains of Iodine in each fluid ounce pure water—no solvent being used. It is not liable to decomposition nor spontaneously formed inequalities; neither is the Iodine neutralized by combination with any ingredient, and as no unpleasant or injurious results can arise from its continued use, this solution will be found superior to any other method in which Iodine can be exhibited.

The great success which has attended the use of Iodine Water in our own practice, and in the hands of those who have used it, enables us to recommend it to the practitioner and the public as a superior remedy for the cure of Chronic diseases, which have resisted other treatment, feeling confident that with a fair trial it will attest its own excellence.

The genuineness of this solution and its excellence as a medicine are attested by the names of such distinguished men as Dr. Jas. R. Chilton, Professor E. H. Parker, Professor Jas. C. Booth, Dr. E. Whitney, Dr. H. Klingstein, and others.

Price $1 per bottle, $5 per half dozen. Sold by Druggists generally

TESTIMONIALS.

The Bible Examiner for August, 1863, edited by the Rev. George Storrs, contains the following editorial notice:

"IODINE WATER.—In this number of our magazine we introduce to the attention of our readers this medical preparation. We have done so, not for pay, nor because our pages are used as a medium for advertisements—for we have uniformly declined them—but gratitude to God, and a sense of obligation to Dr. Anders & Co., have made us insert the following:

My only son, George F. Storrs, now 37 years old, has been afflicted, for some dozen years, more or less, with painful swellings and inflammations in various parts of his body; oftentimes, seemingly, he was near to death; then a respite for a season, but only for a return of the disease with more violence. For the past three years he has had an open sore on his breast; and latterly one near his collar bone, with ulceration in his throat, that was rapidly increasing, so that dissolution appeared inevitable. In this condition he applied to Dr. Anders & Co. By the use of the Iodine Water the ulceration in his throat disappeared in a short time. Continuing its use, in less than two months he was apparently healed, and his general health much improved. This son, whom I had feared would fall asleep in death before this Summer should close, is now, apparently, in a fair way to recover as perfect health as is common to our mortal state. In gratitude to God, who has thus answered prayer, and in justice to Dr. Anders & Co., I have made this statement, satisfied that there is virtue in the Iodine Water treatment which the readers of this magazine will thank its editor for bringing to their notice. GEO. STORRS.

GENTS: The package of Iodine Water came all right. My disease is that of the mitral valve of the heart. Before using the Iodine Water a grating sound being very distinct, even so distinct that it could be heard without difficulty with my overcoat buttoned. Now that rubbing sound is not to be heard.
Yours truly, GEORGE L. LESTER.

In 1860, we first introduced to the public the celebrated preparation known as CONSTITUTION WATER. It is prepared on purely scientific principles, and embodies the full strength of the various ingredients entering into its composition.
A table-spoonful of Constitution Water, added to a pint of pure sweetened water, constitutes the celebrated Lisbon diet drink, so much used by enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes and all ages.
We desire in this connection to make a plain statement of facts, being prompted to do so—
First—By a consideration of the welfare of suffering humanity.
Second—Because we do not wish our article classified as a nostrum or patent medicine, many of which are made by persons too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less to manufacture pharmaceutical preparations.
These persons advertise. This we are compelled to do, to bring our name before the public, conscientiously believing that we have the most valuable article that was ever advertised. It has been advertised several years commencing in a small way, and has not only sustained its reputation, but its popularity has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries.
As before remarked, we, in common with the manufacturers of patent medicines, advertise my medicines. But how short-lived have been the thousands of these articles. And yet there are many persons who will continue to think that merit in the article is not essential to success.
Our course in many particulars has been quite different from that of any others. With over 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters from all sections, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent physicians, clergymen, statesmen, &c., we have not been in the habit of resorting to their publication in the newspapers. We do not do this for the reason that, as our article ranks as standard a remedy, it does not need to be propped up by certificates. We may, however, without too much deviation from our plan, present here a specimen or two selected by chance from the great number at hand. Read the following certificates of cures of years' standing:

DR. W. H. GREGG—Dear Sir:—Having seen your advertisement of Constitution Water, recommended for Inflammation of the Kidneys and Irritation of the Bladder, having suffered for the past three years, and tried the skill of a number of physicians with only a temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bottle of your agents at Hartford, Messrs. LEE, SISSON & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my suprise I found a great change in my health. I have used two bottles of it and am where I never expected to be in my life, well, and in good spirits. I cannot express my gratitude for it; I feel that it is all and more than you recommend it to be. May the blessing of God ever attend you in your labors of love. Yours, truly, LEONARD S. BIGELOW.

DANVILLE, Penn. June 2, 1862.
DR. WM. H. GREGG—Dear Sir: In February, 1861, I was afflicted with sugar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-four hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. During the month of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and in two days after using it I experienced relief, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured; soon after regaining my usual good health.
Yours, truly, J. V. L. DE WITT.

Of the whole number treated, as shown by our certificates, 8,726 were treated for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings. The average amount of medicine consumed, as per certificates, was seven bottles; the average term of suffering, one year and one month. Of this number, 380 were females, 227 children, and the balance males.
10,121 were treated for diseases arising from excesses: Habits of Dissipation, youthful imprudence, attended with various symptoms, among which will be found indisposition to exertion, weak nerves, dimness of vision, night sweats, pallid countenance, great mobility, restlessness, horror of society, no earnestness of manner. These symptoms, if allowed to continue, would undoubtedly result in epileptic fits, insanity or consumption. How many thousands of the young have died of these causes. Visit our almshouses, hospitals and prisons, and see the misery they produce. Out of these 10,121 there were 5,021 males, 3,750 females. The sex of the remaining number was not stated in letters. The average time of suffering was 4½ years; average age, 24 years; average amount of medicine consumed, 10½ bottles. In respect to ailments peculiar to women in decline or change of life, this will be found invaluable. No family should be without it.
8,971 were treated for diseases of the blood arising from habits of dissipation. Of this number 2,247 were treated for Syphilis, 941 for humors in the blood, 1,333 for diseases of a secret nature, in all their stages. In this class of complaints patients do not readily volunteer certificates, which accounts for the small number received. Of this number 4,219 were males and 2,200 were females; average age, 26 years and 2 months; average term of suffering, 3 months; average amount consumed, 9 bottles.
The above statistics are taken from a diary kept expressly for the purpose, and with great care.
The proprietors in making this statement, hope that their motive may be appreciated. A feeling that entire candor is due to all has prompted him to do so. We are well aware that many persons consider live or ten dollars expended in any kind of medicine for the benefit of their health a waste of money, and yet these same persons will expend hundreds of dollars in dress and dissipation, and think nothing of it. Such forget
That good health
Is true wealth.
To the suffering we would say, in conclusion, that we have had much to contend with, the objects being chiefly of this description. The expense of preparing our
